PROGRAM

Hubert Manning, a gifted artist in making jewelry, according to our esteemed program guru.

LAST WEEK

Chuck Souder introduced Charles Martin, Temple City Attorney, who is also temporarily serving as City Manager. He reminded us of many City problems, past and present. Of great interest was the sewer problem. A system built for single family houses was not designed for the heavy usage with all the housing built in more modern times. Apparently the County has 5,100 miles of sewer lines with 112,000 manhole structures and 153 sewage pump stations.

Charles described his jobs as hell on earth. He modestly said that St. Peter would wave him into heaven since he had such hell in his life.

Jerry Jambazian's Students-of-the-Month is now on vacation and so Jerry will also get a vacation, so to speak. His community service will go on.

Jerry also received a personal invitation to attend Chuck Souder's pre-barbeque back-yard meat tasting party. I must say, the top round that was demonstrated, ala Santa Maria style was delicate, tender, taste-tempting, and downright GOOD, Thanks Chuck!

PRES. JOHN SPEAKETH

The big event is just about a month away. You will have your allotment of tickets on or before Tuesday June 21. Please try to buy or sell as many as possible. Remember, this is our major fundraiser. The degree of success of this event will determine our ability to provide services for the next year. We do not want to handicap our upcoming President with the absence of funds.

The folks at People for People are asking for assistance. If you are able to provide a few hours to help at a fireworks stand, please call (626) 285-2549. Dated: June 28-July 4. Location: Ivar and Valley in Rosemead.

AND IN CONCLUSION

The N.Y. Times each week publishes gems of comics Jon Stewart, Jay Leno, Conan O'Brien, and David Letterman. Jon's got Yr. Ed's coveted 1st place with "Consumers have proven as unenthusiastic about such recent G.M. offerings as Chevy Clunker, the Buick Rusteo, and most notably the Pontiac Actually-on-Fire Bird."
