PROGRAM

Carmen Apelgran will give the program, which is:

"The Braille Institute"

LAST WEEK

Hillery Grosberg, head of the Speaker's Bureau of the Women's Lawyers Association, and a litigator for about a quarter of a century, promoted a lively discussion with her views on buying and selling your home.

Hillery said to strike out the binding arbitration clause on the contracts offered by realtors. Reason: If the arbitrator goes off the deep end there is no appeal whereas with a judge you can appeal. My real estate litigating son agrees as he has seen horrendous arbitrator decisions. Yr. Ed. is wary of asking to strike the arbitration provisions could be a possible deal breaker if the offer is a good one. Hillery was against reverse mortgages. If you are the buyer, said Hillery, get your own realtor — the seller's attorney represents the seller. Hillery was against reverse mortgages. Yr. Ed will probably get into this in the next bulletin.

We were joined by an excellent turnout of an interclub group from Alhambra. Pres. Bob Tyler reported that the refurbishing ceremony introducing Millham Field sign went well. Mike Miller, Steve Montesanti and Lisa also attended.

Norm Tyre commented to Yr. Ed. that Elmo was not feeling up to coming to our meeting next day. Yr. Ed's experience with clients indicates that there are ups and downs with the treatment. Some of us are lucky. After 5 hours of every test known to man, including one in which he was turned into a human isotope, Yr. Ed. was found normal. That warranty does not attend to the brain so he's eligible to write bulletins.

GUESTS OF THE CLUB

Sponsored by Mike Lepore were Maria Daikovich and Natalie Bulaich. Stephen D. Guerrero, a product of Temple City and Merrill Lynch was brought by Jerry Jambazian as a guest of the club.

BIRTHDAY

June 25 John Gera

HERE AND THERE

Maureen Dowd, of the New York Times, has a knack for great closing lines, such as this week, on Hillary, "Yup, she's running, and if you're not part of the solution, you're part of the problem."

I've given my cartoon award of the month to the one in which the husband is passed out on the lounge, buttressed by numerous beer cans, the dog is asleep, and the wife is flat on the couch, talking on the telephone and saying, "we're operating here on pure adrenalin".

It seems that Pres. Bush went up to Moses to seek his help with the Israel situation. Moses walked away and Bush kept after him. Finally, Moses said, "Please go away. The last time I had something to do with a bush I ended up wandering in the desert for 40 years."

See you next Tuesday,
