"THE CAMELLIA CLUB"
TEMPLE CITY CALIFORNIA
Chartered August 8, 1939

JUNE 24, 2008 TUESDAY 12:15 P.M. VOL. 71 NO. 26

THIS TUESDAY

Jim Enkelaar received from his daughter Audrey a Christmas present. We should all be so lucky to get a present like this. Jim's present was a digital audio player book with North American birds in song. Jim will press the magic button and we will listen to the top 10 open country birds. Jim Robuck probably wants equal time to give his bird calls.

What dedication! Emperor Principal Kathy Perini will bring her students of the month even after school is out.

LAST TUESDAY

Richard Ashworth has been with the Tournament of Roses for over 10 years. Important notes that Richard shared with us were that the parade was first held in 1890 by the Valley Hunt Club. Never on Sunday started in 1893. First coast to coast broadcast of the parade in 1952. There are only 3 cars in the parade, the Grand Marshall, Mayor, and Tournament President.

In 1902 Michigan routed Stanford with the score of 49-0. The game was called off in the 3rd quarter due to unruly crowds, darkness, and the lopsided score. That bad experience banished football for 14 years as the Tournament returned to more crowd pleasing sports including chariot races.

Richard works for Wells Fargo bank and volunteer's for the Tournament. He gives the public relations side of the Tournament. I thought it strange that Richard did not have the answers to some pretty basic questions from our members. Oh, did I mention that he worked for Wells Fargo bank?

San Gabriel Kiwanis member Dr. Royce Foster visited us. Dr. Foster is first cousin to Jackie Millham. He said he has only delivered about 12 babies in his career.

OTHER HAPPENINGS

Lt. Governor Steve Golden will make his official visit at our Board Meeting on July 1st. I trust we will be on our best behavior and dispense with the attorney jokes.

People For People will be closed for renovations from June 1 to July 19. They are in need of volunteers to bring the facilities into compliance.

The Barbecue tickets have been distributed. Each member needs to sell a minimum of $337.50. The fellow in the dark glasses is known affectionately as "The Enforcer". If you don't sell the required tickets...well you don't want to know.

Steve and Lisa Montesanti will be traveling to Orlando for the International Convention next week. We are expecting for Steve to come back with all kinds of good information. Of course this is all predicated that the travel agent did his job.

I had the distinct pleasure to represent Kiwanis at the Cloverly promotion exercises. I paid tribute to retiring teacher Richard Wenzel, Principal Doug Walters, and Superintendent Dr. Joan Hillard.
