PROGRAM

The Bob and Gina Security Show

Bob will speak on: "Security Systems"

Gina will cover: "What to Look for in a Security Company"

LAST WEEK

Carmen Aplegran, totally blind, did well in representing the Braille Institute. Instead of whining and giving up she decided to do something positive with the rest of her life. We got a handy dandy card showing the various types of vision impairment.

Joe Lang, a former active member of our club, continues to be with the Hemet Club which covers a tremendous area. Stops in to see us whenever he can. He said to tell his old friend, Harlos, that he missed him. Norm Tyre brought Elmo. If you can attend the Pancake Breakfast, July 12, on Saturday, the 20th you will help the Scout Troop 151 which sold a lot of our pancake breakfast tickets. Kathy Perini made a pitch for Temple City's participation in the Tournament of Roses. This may also be covered by Jerry Jambazian who gets the summer break on dealing so capably with the Students of the Month. A good time to hear from Jerry right here.

Honorary Member and Principal at Emperor School, Kathy Perini, along with Assistant Principal Trang Lai brought an outstanding student.

Alberto Ramirez said the reason he was chosen was "I helped alot around the school". Alberto thinks the best things about school are the class projects, P.E., and recess. His hobbies are playing basketball and football, and he wants to make it into the NBA or NFL, and Oak Avenue.

It was my great joy each week to honor these great students, but I am also looking forward along with the teachers to getting a little R & R.

INTERCLUB

Mike Lepore strongarmed Jim Enkelaar, Bill Hohl, and Bob Classon into attending Altadena's meeting. Pres. Bob announced that he was making Mike the Kiwanian of the month.

OUR BIG BARBEQUE

As Mike Miller said, it's right upon us. He needs some bux from all of us so he can get those prizes which is a big part of the evening. Sell those tickets which were passed out at our meeting.

Saturday, July 19, 2003 - Social 6 to 7; Dinner, 7:00 P.M.

Beef or Chicken - A bargain at $15.00

Temple City High School

ANNIVERSARIES

July 7 — Barbara and John Gera

July 7 — Willi and Harlos Gross

AND IN CONCLUSION

The Neighborhood Improvement Society was holding its annual meeting at the local pub. The Party Whooper announced that at Midnight she wanted every husband to stand next to the one person who had made his life worth living. The proprietor of the gin mill was almost crushed to death.

See you Tuesday,
