PROGRAM

Well, well, guess what!

Bob Tyler gave it to Yr. Ed. a week ahead of time.

Dona Herrick of Lock, Stock N' Barrel will speak to us on "Fine Guns and Loading Supplies."

Dona reigns at 5928. However, Pres. Mike is just south of Dona. Who needs body armor when the absorbent Pres. Mike is in between 5928 and 5920?

Immediately after the meeting all members are encouraged to go to Oak Avenue School to check out our new "digs". There will be some new challenges being at a new location. We need to be sure that everything is taken care and our guests are well cared for. If you have not given your gift donation to Mike Miller, now is the time.

It has been rumored that a $50 donation will be given if Mike Miller sings "Don't worry, be happy" with the karaoke machine. I would rather he sing "On a hill, far, far away".

LAST WEEK

We discussed the food we will need for the Big BBQ, almost upon us. Here, Bob Tyler was armed with what we need. Just in case you didn't understand it, this here bulletin gives the true menu and the exact amount of it. The tri-tip will be trimmed or not trimmed and our order will be between 1 lb and 280 lbs. As for chickens, those who cross the street will be slaughtered. For corn, consult Black Elmer. For baked potatoes see Dan Snell. Chocolate Eclairs must be enough in order to accommodate the take homers stuffed into pockets and handbags. Jim Enkelaar will throw vegetation into the air and what comes down will be called salad. All in all, just depend on good old Bob.

Oh, we forgot, extra loud sound will be provided by Jim Robuck whose slogan for the Big Event is "Me worry?" Don't go to the High School. Go to the Oak Avenue School for Temple City's big social event.

SO LONG, R.E. SCHULZ

Jerry Jambazian reported that our beloved punster died about 12 days short of 92. Service at 11:00 A.M. at 1st Lutheran, Thursday, July 8. Broadway and Noel.

THE BIBLE MADE EASY

From my church's bulletin

"On the seventh day of really good creative work, God rested."

AND IN CONCLUSION

"Man is the only animal that blushes, or needs to." Mark Twain

"How many teamsters does it take to change a light bulb?"

"Ten. You gotta problem with that?"

See you Tuesday,
