PROGRAM

Well, Sir. Bob Tyler comes up with a program, a week ahead of time and it conks out at the last minute. Come and find out if we have a program. We probably will find out from Bob as to how the how the Big Event went. Remember, if you are well enough to read this...you should be at the Barbecue.

LAST WEEK

Pres. Mike said that great member Ray Gudie had died. Mike has agreed to do the Passing of Ray Gudie which appears below.

Janice made her first appearance in a long time. She said she had been tied up with labor relations. She said she will try for her party air to the BBQ tables. Her son, the golf champion, was voted most valuable player.

Key Club Pres. Angela Yen made her appearance and brought Dorothy Yeh.

It was announced that Jerry Jambazian (and Ray Gudie) would be honored at the July 26 Chamber of Commerce Installation Banquet.

Speaking of Jerry Jambazian, the part about what Pres. Mike would sing was Jerry's whimsey. Mega-bucks may be made at the Barbecue if Mike Miller does HIS karaoke rendition of "don't worry, be happy".

Yr. Ed. delivers the disc. to Jerry and he thus has the last chance to improve upon it. The next day I get my secretary to get on the internet so that I can find out what I said. Ah well, he's often a real help with pictures and other inserts of his creative writing. Jerry J. does spot slight errors, such as referring to my BBQ on Christmas Eve. He is often successful in getting the program out of Bob Tyler, who is reached on the golf course via the moon.

Thanks to Mike Lepore for mailing out about 3000 postcards plugging the BBQ. Mike himself likes a reminder of what he described as his 42 years of wedded bliss with Judy.

We got through early and had a walk through as to how we should set up for this first ever site, Oak Avenue School. We also surveyed the kitchen.

THE PASSING OF RAY GUDIE

Ray Gudie passed away on July 8th. A memorial service will be arranged upon the return of his minister at the Our Savior Lutheran Church located at 512 W. Duarte Road in Arcadia. It may be on Tuesday and every effort will be made to inform the membership.

It is difficult to express the loss that we all feel and it will not be possible to find another Ray. He loved this club and his devotion and dedication to it for thirty years included two terms as its president. It will be most difficult to attend our BBQ and not see Ray. Further tributes to Ray will be made, but for now our thoughts are on Ray and our collective hearts and prayers are with his beloved Phyllis at this time.

See you on Saturday and on Tuesday,
