THIS TUESDAY

The San Gabriel Council of the Boy Scouts of America. Jack Pan will update us on today's Boy Scouts.

LAST TUESDAY

John Gera, our fearless Barbecue chairman is well prepared with the many areas of responsibility including shopping, transportation, clean corn and potatoes, arrange tables, prep beef and chicken, final set-up, salad committee, reception, soda and ice tea, serving, cleanup, karaoke, beans, door prize hat, and eclairs.

Everyone should have a job. If you don't contact John Gera now. The festivities will start a little early with a well deserved recognition for 60 year member Walter Shatford.

Lt. Governor Steven Golden will make his official visit at our Board Meeting on August 5, 2008 at the Community Room, City Hall.

The Division Council Meeting was held last Thursday with Chuck Shaw, Mike Miller, Mike Lepore, Jerry J, and Chuck Souder. Chuck S was wondering if he had to suffer through another 12 months of the same. One good thing...there were so many of us that we came away the "Club of the Month" banner.

Lt. Governor Stephen Golden is planning a Kiwanis Picnic at the Pasadena Aquatic Center on July 26th. The National Diving championships will be taking place that afternoon. Members would like Mike Miller to dive off the 10 meter board. We were willing to buy tickets at $50 each if there was water in the pool. $100 if the pool was empty.

We were pleased to have as a guest of the club, newly retired Cloverly teacher Richard Wenzel, who over a year ago promised to join when retired.

President Mike Lepore did the best he could in extracting fines for Birthdays and Anniversaries, but it was awful slim pickens. Mike said, "the best thing Judy ever did was marrying me". What do you think Judy?

John Gera was having trouble with his hearing after a prostate exam. I am not even going to ask the obvious.

Late Breaking News: Steve Montesanti did well after surgery to remove some cancer in his ear. I called to check on him and he was having a beer. A good sign.
