PROGRAM

Come and hear the mystery program.
Bob Tyler can be counted on to introduce it.
Drum roll, please!

A GREAT SUCCESS

Although suggestions were made as how we could do it better if we go for one more, thanks to those of our members who were hard core performers and those who also did work.

Jim Robuck's stage management was outstanding, along with General Bob Tyler's elite corps, starting with hauling the BBQ machine and other props, from the setting up of the whole dang thing and frenzied action in loading the plates of the multitude. The go for broke group included Mike Miller, Chuck Shaw, Steve Montesanti, John Gera, Dan Snell, and Bill Hohl. Jim Enkelaar, Elmer Black, Jerry Jambazian, Janice, Toby Straub and the Tyres (Steve and Norm), were observed by Yr. Ed. in action. It we missed anybody just yell at me. Chuck Souder, an expert when it comes to barbecuing, lent his support.

Seriously, it hard to think of the long playing community social event, go vanishing into the sunset.

In any event, our Board of Directors has a big decision to make as to continuance. If we go again, we'll need more coffee and larger containers for Jerry's popular baked beans.

A last observation, along with younger folk, a special number of the halt turned out.

AND IN CONCLUSION

Good old Groucho (Marx, that is)
"Go, and never darken my towels again."
" I never forget a face, but in your case I'll be glad to make an exception."

See you on Tuesday,
