"THE CAMELLIA CLUB"
TEMPLE CITY CALIFORNIA
Chartered August 8, 1939

JULY 29, 2008 TUESDAY 12:15 P.M. VOL. 71 NO. 31

THIS TUESDAY

Last year Ellen Velasquez from the Red Cross spoke to us about preparing for a disaster. This year she will suggest what to do after a disaster. Good thing she did not speak to Mr. Happy#1 before the Barbecue, she probably would have notified FEMA and the Red Cross of impending disaster.

LAST TUESDAY

Jack Pan is an enthusiastic Senior District Executive with The San Gabriel Council of the Boy Scouts of America. Jack is from Boston, MA and graduated from Harvard University with a M.A. from the Kennedy School of Government.

We are part of the Lucky Baldwin District which takes in Sierra Madre, Monrovia, Duarte, Temple City, with the largest portion coming from Arcadia.

Scouting encompasses Cubs with ages 6-10, Boy Scouts 11-18, and Venture Crews (boys and girls) ages 11-18. Membership grew by 5.1% in 2007 with the District producing 247 Eagle Scouts. Scouting began in 1910 with 10 boys led by Baden Powell. There are 28 million scouts worldwide in 216 countries and territories. Our own member Norm Tyre is an Eagle Scout.

Dan Snell paid $64 for the privilege of being married to June for 64 years. Congratulations to Dan and June for endurance. They did not make the news on the gossip channel, they only cover movie stars who make it to the 2nd year.

Lt. Governor Stephen Golden is planning a Kiwanis Picnic at the Pasadena Aquatic Center on July 26th. The National Diving championships will be taking place that afternoon. Members would like Mike Miller to dive off the 3 meter board. We were willing to buy tickets at $50 each if there was water in the pool. $100 if the pool was empty.

Mike gave the preliminary report on the Barbecue. Just about the same numbers as last year with 235 served. We always wonder how we can continue with this project with the limited members that we have, the answer is simple, we do it because we care about the programs we support and the community we serve. A big thank you to the Key Club and their Advisor Mr. Stranske for their outstanding service. Also to not-yet-inducted member Richard Wenzel for lending a hand.

I think everyone would agree that the special honors given to 61 year member Walter Shatford and his family was special and well deserved. You can view all the photos at our TC Kiwanis website. If we have a program cancellation some day I will provide a slide show.

Special kudos to John Gera who made sure all the bases were covered.

Richard Wenzel reported that former Kiwanian and Club President in 1981 Duane Raschke passed away Sunday, July 20th in Pensacola, Florida. Richard was a close friend of Duane and Shirley and has visited them many times. He will be attending Duane's Memorial Service on Tuesday, July 29th in Florida. Donations can be made to Covenant Hospice, Pensacola Little Theatre, or Unity Church of Pensacola.
