JULY 31, 2012 TUESDAY 12:00 P.M. VOL. 73 NO. 44

THIS TUESDAY

Ten Thousand Villages will talk about Fair Trade products. Fair trade provides under- and unemployed artisans with an opportunity to earn vital income and improve their quality of life by establishing a sustainable market for their handcrafted products. Ten Thousand Villages is a founding member of the WFTO - the World Fair Trade Organization, a global network of more than 350 fair trade organizations in 70 countries.

LAST TUESDAY

Congratulations to Jerry Backstrom for doing an excellent job coordinating all the details and running around. Also a big thank you to President Rich for helping with all the little details. All the details are not available yet but we can tell you that 181 adult and 23 children tickets were sold. This is down significantly from last year. Its amazing to me that we have been doing this for 44 years and it still is a work in progress with no idea how many people will attend.

Overall good comments were received and it seemed to run very smooth with Dave Seltman taking care of the meat. I wish I had the stamina of Steve Montesanti whose skill at slicing the meat was incomparable. Chuck Shaw did a great job of barbecuing the chicken despite the help of Mike Miller. Also thanks to Chuck for arranging for the antique cars. Carol Rodenbucher did an outstanding job coordinating the raffle in filling in for vacationing Sue Matchett. The serving line ran smoother than previous years.

Thanks to Trish and Riley O'Brien for selling the soft drinks. Linda Agajanian and her son for selling the raffle tickets. Thanks for the 2 Builders Club members helping in the morning and the 2 Key Club members in the afternoon. With the absence of the Key Clubbers this year, a huge thank you to Frank Deckon for arranging the superior help of Scout Troop 161 who also led us in the flag salute. I apologize if I did not mention some workers. We will have a complete listing in the near future.

Kelli Flanigan from Huntington Beach won "The Hat", Patti Monroe of Covina won the lottery tickets, Jim Prion of Covina won the Kindle Fire (Chuck Shaw sold him the ticket), and our own Henry Walpus won the 42" flat screen TV. Henry did not know who sold him the winning ticket, and furthermore does not even remember buying one. Marlen Euredjian made a good deal with the winning bid of $300 for the $3,200 Brown Jordan patio furniture.

We participated in an Interclub with San Gabriel at the Colonial House in San Marino last Tuesday morning. We outnumbered them with a whopping 4 members as they only had 3. The program for the morning was Rosemead Club member and former Lt. Governor Jan Robertson. Jan spoke passionately about the Eliminate Project. President Rich was extremely moved with Jan's presentation and is encouraging all members to donate weekly at a receptacle near the front.

With The Eliminate Project, Kiwanis International and UNICEF have joined forces to eliminate maternal and neonatal tetanus. This deadly disease steals the lives of nearly 60,000 innocent babies and a significant number of women each year. The effects of the disease are excruciating — tiny newborns suffer repeated, painful convulsions and extreme sensitivity to light and touch.

Elizabeth Quintero from the Ontario Noon Kiwanis Club paid a visit with us. She lost her job about two weeks ago with an architecture firm and possibly thought we could help.

The American Cancer Relay for Life will take place this weekend at Temple City High School with opening ceremonies starting at 10 a.m. Saturday.

Ronald McDonald Meals of Love is next Wednesday, August 1. The theme is pork (please withhold the jokes). Main dish, Mike Miller and Sue Matchett. Salad, Chuck Shaw and Matt Smith. Dessert, Ron Dorazio and John Gera. Bread, Dave Seltman, and Rich with the drinks. Bread and drinks can be brought early to his house.
