PROGRAM

Mike Lepore says it will be Roger Nicole and two Sniffer Dogs
"How a Trained Sniffer Dog Covers Odors"
"How a Trained Sniffer Dog Covers Dead Bodies."
(We'll see how many Kiwanians will be found by the Dead Body Sniffer)

LAST WEEK

Chuck Shaw introduced Earl Hartling, the Recycled Coordinator of the Los Angeles County Sanitation Department who expertly led us through the Reclaimed (non-drinkable by humans) Water Program. The speaker said there isn't enough water to cover California's coming needs. What happens then? That's the enigma of the future.

Also present was Dan Arrigi, Mayor of Temple City. The Mayor is on the Board of the Sanitation District. Mike Miller introduced Key Clubber Angela and her sister Dorothy.

REPRISE ON THE BBQ

Our Peerless Leader, John Gera, contributes this:

"Many thanks to the 78% of our active membership who participated in our 2005 BBQ. Workers included: Ben Ashkinos, Elmer Black, Natalie Bulaich, John Chandler, Jim Enkelaar, Tony Euredjian, John Gera, Bill Hohl, Jerry Jambazian, Mike Lepore, Art Luna, Dawn Manwaring, Mike Miller, Steve Montesanti, Jim Robuck, Walt Shatford, Chuck Shaw, Dan Snell, Chuck Souder, Tony Straub, and Robert Tyler. Raffle and 50-50 ticket sales assistance was provided through the offices of Steve Tyre. We again thank Tom McIntee for audio set up. Tom again provided this service at no charge.

"Comment sheets were distributed at the lunch on Tuesday. Please fill out and return to President John on Tuesday August 2. The program for August 9 will be a discussion of survey results. No matter how good we get at the BBQ events, we can still get better."

Jerry Jambazian was somewhat unhappy with the disregard of some workers who got into disputes with each other at the BBQ in the presence of the public. Note, guys, this here bulletin is the Law West of the Pecos.

Jerry reports Elmer Black requests: "If you have a yellow apron with the Coldwell Banker logo on it, don't bother. But if you have one with a Kiwanis logo on it, bring it to Elmer. He is missing three of them. It is reported that he will pay 6% commission for the safe return, washed or unwashed.

INTERCLUB WITH SAN MARINO; CLUB SHIRTS

Mike Miller reports that he and John Gera, Mike Lepore, Bill Hohl and Jim Enkelaar attended an interclub with the San Marino club on Thursday, July 21. Mike said that "we had more members than they do, but a personable group with a good speaker." Mike says, several shirts that have been ordered have not been picked up yet. Cost of shirt is $25.00 but $4.50 more for your name.

THE SAME OLD

The N.Y. Times, commenting on the going on in D.C., thought about the long ago when William Jennings Bryan on behalf of the poor farmers railed against the robber barons. He was done in by the clever Clarence Darrow:

Bryan: "I do not think about things I do not think about."

Darrow: "Do you think about the things you do think about?"

Bryan: "Sometimes."

SEE YOU TUESDAY.
