AUGUST 4, 2015 TUESDAY 12:00 P.M. VOL. 76 NO. 44

THIS TUESDAY

City Manager Bryan Cook will give us a update on managing a city of 35,000.

LAST TUESDAY

Dan Snell and his son participated in the Honor Flight to Washington DC. May 8-10.

Honor Flight Network is a non-profit organization dedicated to providing veterans with honor and closure in their service to our country.

Honor Flight Network is a non-profit organization dedicated solely to honor America's veterans for all their sacrifices. They transport at no cost the heroes to Washington D.C. to visit and reflect at the memorials of their particular branch of service. Top priority is given to the senior veterans - World War II survivors, along with those other veterans who may be ill.

Of all of the wars in recent memory, it was World War II that truly threatened our very existence as a nation of culturally diverse citizens as a free society.

The first honor flight took place in May 2005, when six small planes flew 12 veterans to Washington. Due to high participation, the program began using commercial flights. At the end of 2005, the program had transported 137 veterans to the memorial. In late 2005, Jeff Miller, a dry cleaner (let's hear it for the dry cleaners) in Hendersonville, North Carolina, inspired by Morse's vision, had a similar idea but on a larger scale. Miller, the son of a World War II veteran and nephew of a B-24 bomber pilot who died in the war, had been a charter member of the National World War II Memorial Foundation. Like Morse, Miller lamented that many WWII veterans would be unable to visit the memorial. The seed that Morse had planted grew to a veritable forest of volunteerism, fundraising and goodwill toward the Greatest Generation veterans, who had been too busy building their communities to demand recognition for wartime service.

"We can't all be heroes. Some of us have to stand on the curb and clap as they walk by." - Will Rogers

We still need helpers at our booth for the Concerts in the Park on Wednesday nights. Please see Steve Montesanti or Jim Robuck for more details. President Matt Smith paid for his 34th wedding anniversary. Congratulations Matt and Janet.

Guest at the club meeting were Frank Ruedel, Sharon Johnson, Marie Leonard, and Jan Robertson from the Rose Float Club. They are having a Flapjack Fundraiser on Saturday, September 12 from 8 a.m. to 10 a.m.. Applebee's Monrovia at Mayflower and Huntington Drive. Donation is $10 per copy by contacting Dave Wallach at 714 328-2410 or email at Pag.DSW@att.net. If you can't make it they would welcome donations to help feed the Key Clubbers. Funds will help build the 2016 International Float in the Rose Parade.

Rich Wenzel is organizing another Ronald McDonald Meals of Love on Wednesday, August 5. The theme is pork with the Main Dish by Dave Seltman and Dan Snell, Salad by Rich Wenzel and Matt Smith, Bread by Steve Montesanti, Drinks by John Gera, and Dessert by Rob Rodenbucher and Sue Matchett. Thanks as always to these dedicated angels of mercy.
