PROGRAM

Betty Harris, active in the work of NAMI San Gabriel Valley (NAMI is the shorthand for National Alliance for the Mentally Ill) will speak on "The Facts and Myths of Mental Illness"

LAST WEEK

Mike Miller was kind in furnishing the following (and some more).

Ray Gudie gave a very good presentation on his trip to Italy. While he brought photos of his trip, his talk was more about his observations of the country, its people, culture, lifestyle and food. Education and transportation are very big in Italy

Gina Post from Post Alarms, a speaker a couple of weeks ago, returned as a guest of the club and may bring her dad next time. Dictator Bob went straight for the Mikes in the room after the meeting began on auto pilot. Bob reminded one and all that he was there at the BBQ and once again thanked everyone. Get your money or bills in so that a final report can be generated.

Jerry Jambazian was honored at the Chamber installation for not only being the 'Web Master,' but for Director of the year. Pat was present for Jerry's recognition as well as Pres. Bob, Pres. Elect Mike, Secty Chuck and Pam, his lovely bride for 32 years. It was pointed out that 13 members of this club have served as President of the Chamber.

Progress reports were made regarding Willi Gross, Lou Merritt and Al Driver.

Finally, newest member Natalie was thanked for her volunteering to drive Key Club members to Seal Beach last Saturday. An vehicle was going to be rented, but they called up and informed us that they were able to find rides down to the beach.

ADD TO LAST WEEK

Pres. Bob and Sydney, Mike Miller, Mike Lepore, Norm Tyre, Dan Snell and Yr. Ed. attended the funeral Mass at St. Charles Borromeo Church. Elmo worked to help put the Temple City School District together. As Mike Miller put it "Elmo was a remarkable man."

Elmer Black has presented Yr. Ed. with a copy of The Frontier Daily from the Wyoming Tribune-Eagle which said, that Kiwanis members served the ultimate pancake breakfasts, serving about 60,000 breakfasts, spread out over three days.

BIRTHDAY BOY

Speaking of Elmer, Aug. 10 is his birthday.

POLITICS AT THE POTOMAC

The usual political piety is that people at the local level know what is needed. It's also usual to budget about 34 billion to the states. The budget came out at less than 20 billion. A legislator, as the price of his vote got up to 20. Now a month in Iraq is more than 34. Now we receive the wonderful news that there will be no freshman class at U.C. next year. Schools are suffering throughout the U. S. Some even closing. Ain't politics just grand!

See on Tuesday,
