AUGUST 7, 2007 TUESDAY 12:15 P.M. VOL. 70 NO. 32

THIS TUESDAY

It's the Mr. Happy #1 Show. Mike Miller will tell all about the goings on at the International Convention in San Antonio. Was Kiwanis different 20 years ago?. Come find out!

LAST TUESDAY

Red Cross super volunteers Ellen Velasquez and Kathleen Household have been donating their time for 13 years, enlightening us to the good work of our local and national Red Cross for over 125 years.

You don't know when or how a disaster will strike, but you can be sure it will happen.

Many helpful hints were given in their powerpoint presentation. One thing that hit home with me was when their is a power outage, don't use candles, use flashlights. There are more problems putting out the fires that are caused by the candles than the disaster itself.

If you would like more information on the good work of our local Red Cross please visit <http://www.arcadia-redcross.org> or <http://www.redcross.org>

Guests also attending our meeting were Peggy Sue Miller's daughter, Harmony, John Tyre, Monica Tyre, Tony Tyre, and Philip.

Sue Matchett has finished the written critique of our recent Barbecue and it will be available to the club soon.

INTERCLUB AND ANNIVERSARY PARTY

Jim has lined up our last interclub for the year by attending the 80th Anniversay Party of the San Gabriel club. August 9th at the San Gabriel Hilton, 225 W. Valley Blvd. (near Del Mar) Lunch is $20, time is 12:15 to 1:30 p.m..

DAN SNELL IS PUBLISHED

Our own Dan wrote a response to the Star News entitled "Lose the hyphens". "The recent flap over the under-representation of people of Spanish descent in the Ken Burns documentary on World War II is symptomatic of a potential dangerous divisiveness that has been developing in our country in recent years.

The same position could be taken by any group. The list is nearly endless: Irish, Italian, German, Polish, Armenian, Chinese, Indian, etc.

It is way past time that we ceased using the politically correct practice of referring to various groups as hyphenated Americans.

If we wish to live here and take advantage of all of the benefits that this great country has to offer, we should consider ourselves as Americans all - no hyphens necessary".

Dan shared with us that everything was OK except two things. They left off a paragraph and it took 3 months months to publish. Keep writing Dan!

STEVE AND DAVE ARE HONORED

Steve Montesanti, Jerry Jambazian, and Honorary Member Dave Smith were honored at the 83rd Annual Chamber of Commerce Installation and Awards Banquet. Steve was honored as Service Club Member of the Year, and Dave as Citizen of the Year. Attending the festivities were Elmer Black and Peggy Sue Miller. Congratulations to all!
