THIS TUESDAY

Now is your opportunity to give input that will help future BBQ's. Chairman John Gera passed out a 3 page summary and comments questionnaire. Please fill it out and bring with you Tuesday.

Come prepared to give constructive criticism or positive comments that would help John for next year.

LAST WEEK

Carol Peters and Phil Leddel are Elder Law attorney's. They specialize in long term insurance and spoke on the pitfalls of getting old, in a manner that is was supposed to be fun, kinda like Dan Ackroyd and Jane Curtain from Saturday Night Live fame.

My take was that they were not anything like the duo from SNL. They had a lot of good information (much of it being the same things that Steve Tyre has been telling us all along), they would have been much better just trying to be themselves and not stepping over each other.

The three most important things are income, assets, and health. We were told to write a Advanced Heathcare Directive to determine our future, do not do it orally. California requires a notarized document with two signatures, other states may require three signatures.

Check out my quote at the bottom of this page.

The editor paid hansomly for not including Chuck Souder and Frankie for helping at the BBQ. He said it, not me, "How could you miss me?"

Good to see Norm Tyre 3 weeks in a row at our meetings. John Tyre, Steve Tyre, and Tony Tyre were there to see if they were getting all the right info on Elder abuse. Norm had a little knot on his forehead, I wonder if Mel Gibson gave it to him?. The program on Elder Abuse should not be confused with what is going to happen on October 1st, better known as "Elmer Abuse".

If Norm can make it 3 weeks in a row and attend the BBQ, what's your excuse for missing a meeting?

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"Too many people are thinking of security instead of opportunity. They seem more afraid of life than death." — James F. Byrnes (1879 - 1972)

See you Tuesday, Jerry
