PROGRAM

Dennis Lee, from the Methodist Hospital, Arcadia will give us the word on:

"The Price of Health Care"

Please, please, make the meeting. We have got to stop just having a handful of attendees. It's embarrassing.

LAST WEEK

Audrey Eckhardt of the Salvation Army showed up (unlike some scheduled speakers) and spoke about the Salvation Army which gained a lot of praise for WWI and WW2, passing out doughnuts.

Nowadays there is strong emphasis in saving youths what with tutoring, parenting gang prevention, summer camps, etc. Not ignored are food and shelter for adults (including the homeless and veterans) and support of hospitals. She wants you to be an angel ($1,000 a year).

John and Sue Chandler returned from going all over the U.S., including going to their son's marriage. Faithful Kiwanian Chuck Shaw put in $$$ in celebration of his years with Pam.

DIRECTORS MEETING

At the last meeting the fate of the BBQ was not decided. The site of the Sept. 21 Installation has not been decided.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE RECOGNITION OF JERRY AND RAY

Our own Jerry Jambazian was presented with the Camellia Award. Pres. Mike Miller presented and read the letter(which appeared in Temple City Life) which told of the contribution of the late Ray Gудie's 30 years as service to Kiwanis and the community. Jerry Jambazian found a picture of Ray working at the 2003 BBQ. Copies of Temple City Life available at the back door of Washington Mutual (corner of Camellia). Ray continued his Chamber of Commerce membership even though not transferring his insurance business.

THANK YOU, HELEN HOFFMANN

Helen has continued her interest in Kiwanis after good Kiwanian Bill died. This time her check to Kiwanis, $50.00 in memory of Ray to the Gill Sefton fund and other $$ toward the cost of the bulletin.

JERRY GOES DOWN MEMORY LANE

If you happen to look at the top of this bulletin on Sunday, you will notice that OUR club is 65 years old today. Our club has changed a lot just in the last 15 years. Do you remember our 50th celebration banquet at the old T&J restaurant in Rosemead? Do you remember our meeting room being filled each week? We still do much with this small "band of dedicated members". Is Temple City Kiwanis one of the passions in your life? Is it a desire to clear your calendar between noon and 1:30 every Tuesday?

Some of the faces have changed, and sadly we have lost many good members in the passing of time, BUT, we are the BEST when it comes to service to our community. THAT HAS NOT CHANGED. WE BUILD!

ARROWS AIMED AT YR. ED.

All writing is garbage. Antonin Artard.
Unprovided with original learning, unformed in the habits of thinking, I resolved to write a book. Edward Gibbon.

See YOU on Tuesday.
