"THE CAMELLIA CLUB"
TEMPLE CITY CALIFORNIA
Chartered August 8, 1939

AUGUST 13, 2008 TUESDAY 12:15 P.M. VOL. 71 NO. 33

THIS TUESDAY

Temple City Parks and Recreation head Cathy Burroughs will tell all we want to know about the best program in the San Gabriel Valley.

LAST TUESDAY

Our own Peggy Miller's husband was our program. Edward has been in the automotive business since 1986, Edward has been a Service Advisor with Symes for 10 years and now with Bewley Allen for the past 4 years.

When you take your car to the dealer, make sure you speak to a Service Advisor instead of a Service Writer. An Advisor will assist in diagnosing the problem and suggest the best course of action. A Writer only does the paperwork.

Ed said there was a big need for quality mechanics with the labor rate going for $105 per hour. If you have a problem, the best course of action is a personal phone call instead of letter writing. In the 80's cars were designed to go 80,000 miles. Now, with the proper care cars can go for 200,000+ miles.

Ed says he welcomes calls about auto repair on GM products to see if you are getting the right diagnosis and information.

We welcomed Dorothy Cunningham who is a columnist with the Pasadena Star News. She seemed to be entertained with our lively meeting. A few of us stayed after and spoke with Dorothy about TC Kiwanis. Dorothy was instrumental in getting our Barbecue on the front page of the Star last week. A note of thanks from Sara Shatford was read to the club.

Elmer "Yee Haw" Black just returned from Wyoming to attend Cheyenne Days. Their local Kiwanis Club served 12,670 pancake breakfast from 8 stations in 2 hours. No Eggs!!

BOARD MEETING ACTION

Everyone was on their best behavior as we literally entertained our Lt. Governor Steven Golden. Mike Miller gave the preliminary financial report for the Barbecue. The By-Laws Committee will meet at Mike Miller's home at 5:00 p.m.. President-Elect Chuck has all his appointments for the new year. The cost for our installation dinner at Mimi's has been set at $25. The cost is actually more, the Club will pick up the balance. Sir George's could lose their lease. Please give your choice of a meeting place.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"Every day I remind myself that my inner and outer life are based on the labors of other men, living and dead, and that I must exert myself in order to give in the same measure as I have received and am still receiving." - Albert Einstein
