THIS TUESDAY

John Dickey will present our favorite subject, Financial Planning. He is thinking about membership so ask the nice questions.

LAST TUESDAY

Carole Rodenbucher was our featured speaker for the day. Carole is married to member Bob Rodenbucher, they have two boys and has volunteered wherever needed including PTA, Camellia Festival, Boy and Cub Scouts, Grad Nite, Historical Society, Woman's Club, Chaperone for TCHS Germany trip and Washington DC trip. Needless to say she really enjoys staying home with Bob.

Carole latest volunteer position is with Friends of Foster Children. She is on the Ways and Means Committee.

Some of the projects currently underway are School Supplies, Halloween Candy, Thanksgiving Items, Sugar Plum Project, Hotel sample sizes of soap, Ralphs community contribution.

Carole is shown in the photo holding a cute little pig that was once a snapple bottle. Pigs with a Purpose has raised more than $700. We went whole hog and fed the pig with folding money as it was passed around.

Mike Miller and Sue Matchett are leaving on a Alaskan cruise this week. They fly to Seattle on Friday and then board the cruise line. They will be gone one week and Mike will be able to receive dialysis on board the ship.

Since we have some extra space this week I will give some excerpts from my latest Jerry's Journeys published in Mid Valley News:

"Just in time for the back-to-school season, Citizen's Academy returns on October 5 to engage a new class of civic-minded leaders. The seven-course program was launched last year to promote citizen education and better familiarize community members to City Hall functions, operations and services. Each session is an interactive discussion led by top staff on topics ranging from City finances and planning, to parks and recreation and economic development.

Last year's class included 23 graduates of which I was one, four of which now serve as City commissioners. "You have to start developing people, knowledge and skills—otherwise if people get elected or get appointed to commissions, they spend their first year learning rather than contributing," said Mayor Pro Tem Carl Blum. Program applications become available in September, are due Sept. 27, with classes beginning Oct. 5. To add your name to the interest list, email pio@templecity.us

The City is in final discussions with Columbia Pictures to use Temple City as a backdrop and scene location for Kitchen Sink, a zombie-vampire film slated for release in 2014. Staff is meeting with Columbia Pictures reps to finalize film permit details including filming hours, street closures, and potential public safety concerns.

Speaking of kitchen sink, have you seen the big sinkhole at the Gateway Project? They have been removing tons of dirt and digging a deep hole. I have surmised they are digging a graveyard for all the antique trucks and equipment on site. If my memory serves me Mr. Wang was to report to the Council in February of 2012 a list of the major tenants. We are still waiting!"

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"The time to stop talking is when the other person nods his head affirmatively but says nothing." -- Henry S. Haskins

See you Tuesday, Jerry
