PROGRAM

This should be interesting.

You will recall that on June 28, Robert Percy the helicopter pilot wounded joined us for a up-close look at Iraq. Robert will bring us Part II. Seven new teachers to the TCUSD will also join us for lunch as we give them official Kiwanis welcome. Dr. Joan Hillard and Bev Jones will do the introductions. Dr. Jack Von Bulow might also join us to give us thanks for Toothprints.

LAST WEEK

We didn't meet at Sir George's but instead one group of Kiwanians went to Montebello and another group to Alhambra.

Thanks to Mike Miller who reported:

"Chuck Souder (with grandson Frankie), Chuck Shaw, Mike Miller and Jim Enkelaar attended. We were treated to lunch and were impressed with all they do with only six or seven real active members. They sell fireworks for their fund raiser. They support two Key Clubs; feed over 400 people at Thanksgiving time with help from they Key Clubs; conduct a community prayer breakfast and other worthy projects all with a minimal number of members. Our collective hats were off to them"

Thanks to Pres. John Gera, who reported:

"Visiting with Alhambra were Bob Tyler, Dan Snell, Walter Shatford, John Gera, Art Luna, Steve Montesanti and Jerry Jambazian. We find that the Alhambra club is having membership problems (as are most clubs). Membership is 12. The leadership is desperately looking for members in the business community and public service areas. They feel that their very active Key Club needs support. They do not want these youngsters to be left without adult supervision, support and encouragement."

Yr. Ed. will add that our group bravely put their lives on the line. The deep fried potato sends the wrong message to the arteries and contributes to obesity. Yr. Ed's strategy was, as Sam Goldwyn used to say, "Include me out."

THE ELMO BREGOLI SCHOLARSHIPS GET A BOOST

Elmo's son, John Bregoli, has given our club a handsome $2,100. Elmo's sister contributed the $100 and John did the rest.

MIKE MILLER SAYS

A few shirts that have been ordered have not been picked up yet. Cost of shirts is $25.00 and if you have your name added, please add $4.50.

All outstanding revenue and expenses should be turned into Mike Miller next week so that the accounting can be finalized.

AN ANNIVERSARY

Aug 28 - Sydney and Bob Tyler

AND IN CONCLUSION

Never believe anything until it has been officially denied.

"What ought to be done to the man who invented the celebrating of anniversaries. Mere killing would be too light," said Mark Twain.
