PROGRAM

Poor Jim Enkelaar.

First, Honorary Member Kathy Perini was enjoying some extra time in Hawaii. Next, he gets our Postmaster, Al Sucedo, to update us on the Postal Service.

Well, Sir, the update is from Washington D.C. which requires something else of the postmasters. So, Jim says, it will be a mystery program.

LAST WEEK

Our own home talent weighed in with the almost unanimous view that Warren Buffett was touching the third rail and Prop. 13 was just dandy. Well, Sir, Yr. Ed. will give you a minority opinion. He opposed Prop. 13. The public should have passed Prop. 8, which would have to at least confined Prop. 13 to residences. Prop. 13 passed control of the tax rate to Sacramento. So much for local control. Yr. Ed. points out that when we voted on the tax rate there were numerous persons who knew all about education and those alleged Commie educators. When control passed to Sacramento all the local great authorities lost all interest in education and those alleged radicals. Board elections became much more tame.

The public jumps at anything which cuts taxes. Yr. Ed.'s best friend gives him the conservative position: Starve government and it won't have the money to spend on socialistic programs. Yr. Ed. is now observing a third generation of Prop. 13 beneficiaries. The goodie passes from generation to generation on. It's sort of like the old English system: Property passed down the line by birth. Buffett, the fool, asks why his multimillion California digs deserve the low assessment of the late 1970's? Should great corporations continue to get a free ride?

Are you getting the impression that Yr. Ed. doesn't want to send you a blank bulletin? Ok, we will move to the National scene.

INTERNATIONAL LAW

Yr. Ed. will make another minority report. 73% of the electorate support George W. International law is that a nation can only make a preemptive strike if the enemy is about to attack us. Yr. Ed. is reminded of Hearst, whose crack correspondent complained that nothing was happening in Cuba and he wanted to come back to the U.S. Hearst commanded him to stay in Cuba too. Hearst said he (Hearst) would provide the war. Now we have an absolutely breath taking budget which the yet unborn will inherit.

BACK TO GEORGE

Rarely is the question answered, is our children learning?

Lower voter turn-out is an indication of fewer people going to the polls.

The vast majority of our imports come from outside the country.

It is clearly a budget. It has a lot of numbers in it.

If we don't succeed we run the risk of failure.

See you on Tuesday,
