We will talk about the Barbecue. Many have given their suggestions for improvements and Sue Matchett dutifully recorded them. Please bring your copy!

LAST TUESDAY

What more can be said about the greatest thing that Temple City has. Hubert Manning has the gift of seeing something and saying "I can do that".

The following is an e-mail that I have sent to Emanuel Parker at San Gabriel Valley Newspaper Group (StarNews), Philip Pettus at Temple City Life, and Huell Howser at CBS California Gold:

Hello Huell,

I am a member of the Temple City Kiwanis Club and we have had several programs by a gentleman by the name of Hubert Manning.

Hubert is 86 years old and a resident of Temple City. He has many inventions to his credit. He recently showed us a lamp that he made over a 9 month period from 10 different kinds of laminated wood. It is the most beautiful lamp I have ever seen. You would swear that it was made from inlaid pieces.

On other occasions he showed how he faceted precious stones from a machine that he built into beautiful jewelry. He even made the molds for the castings.

He has made beautiful violins and other musical instruments.

He has built all the furniture in his home. He has never sold any of his works, he is happy to give it away. He works on his projects from 4 a.m. to 8 a.m. In his garage.

The reason I am contacting you is that I feel this is a true "Rube Goldberg" who sees something and says "I can make that", "I will not only make it, but I will create the tools and equipment to produce the piece."

I am a fan of your television shows and feel that his story needs to be told, if for nothing else, to be a inspiration to the next generation.

He is a wonderful humble gentleman. Please contact me for any other information.

He is a true California treasure.

Sincerely,

-- Jerry Jambazian

CLUB NEWS

Dan and June Snell are still trying to find that huge "lobsta" in Maine.
Sydney Tyler will be retiring at the end of the month. I wonder what she will do when she finds out what Bob has been doing all day.
Guests at Tuesday's meeting were Cheryl Robuck, John Tyre, Sam Tyre, and Monica Tyre.
Elmer Black and John Gera are on official Kiwanis business
