LAST WEEK

Kathy Perini told us about her activities as a member of the upper echelon of the Pasadena Tournament of Roses. With luck she will make President in about 15 years. She also pitched for the $35,000 needed to take care of the expenses of the Temple band entry. The band needs good looking instruments and a sprucing up of uniforms. Yr. Ed's note: His secretary, who also works as a White Suiter, says that light weight uniforms are preferred as the five and a half mile walk makes band members hot specially those carrying heavy instruments like tubas.

Additional Ed's note: He worked on the two previous Temple City entries of floats. We sold .25 cent tickets from door to door. On the first one he could have been killed. The float was built on an old automobile chassis and when we got to a major intersection in Pasadena so as to get in line on Orange Grove Blvd. we went through an intersection at a good rate of speed and against the light. The float, it turned out, was so heavy that it was resting on the brakes on the way up from Temple City.

On another year we had a spoof on Democrats. We got a lot of flack, not from Democrats, but from Republicans, who complained that we were making fun of the Presidency of the United States. Help gluing the flowers onto the floats in the barns is always needed. The Tournament has been very lucky in that seldom does it rain on the Big Day but my brother-in-law marched in a rainstorm with the uniform being a red coat and white flannels. The red jackets bled all over the pants and that was one big disaster.

THANKS ARE DUE TO

Jerry J. interrupted his vacation to come and distribute the bulletin. Jerry also serves as a monitor so that if he spots a wrong date or an event or other major error he makes the necessary correction.

VOTE ON DUES NEWS SEPTEMBER 2

Kiwaniis International has increased the amount going to it. It has been increased by $15.00 per year. Our Directors propose to put on an extra dollar for the Club which will make it an even $73.00 per half year.

TWO DEADLY SINS

Self-confidence, if it becomes arrogance.
Faith, if it becomes self-righteous.

See you on Tuesday,
