LAST TUESDAY

Well, another senior moment as I forgot my notes at Sir George's last Tuesday.

It has been exactly 3 years since we welcomed new teachers to the TCUSD. What better time to renew this event than this year when we are introducing our new Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Chelsea Kang-Smith.

Karen Reed introduced the 8 new teachers. Lynne Burkardt introduced Chelsea. After in-depth interviews of 3 of the new hires, Chelsea spoke of her first 26 days in office. She spoke of a district of distinguished schools that are doing great, but there is always room for improvement.

Chelsea has visited all the schools and remarked about the wonderful facade of the High School and upon close inspection, witnessed items of infrastructure that needed attention. These are difficult times with a declining enrollment, and the State non-budget. Attendance ranks at 96%. If we could achieve 98% attendance it could make a significant difference in funding. It might be a good time to look at the Bond issue again.

Many thanks to the City of Temple City, School District, Subway, and The Hat for the many gift items we gave to the new teachers.

Others in attendance Tuesday were Barbara Gera, Marie Leonard, John Tyre and Philip.

WHAT IS LABOR DAY?

Labor Day is a legal holiday celebrated on the first Monday in September in the United States, Puerto Rico, the Canal Zone, and the Virgin Islands. The celebration of Labor Day, in honor of the working class, it was first suggested by Peter J. McGuire, founder of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters.

It was initiated in the U.S. in 1882 by the Knights of Labor, who held a large parade in New York City. In 1884 the group held a parade on the first Monday of September and passed a resolution to hold all future parades on that day and to designate the day as Labor Day. In March 1887, the first state law to declare the day a legal holiday was passed in Colorado, followed by New York, Massachusetts, and New Jersey.

In 1894 the U.S. Congress made the day a legal holiday. Parades, and speeches by labor leaders and political figures, mark Labor Day celebrations. Labor Day is celebrated in Canada on the first Monday in September. The first parades and rallies to honor workers were held in 1872 in Ottawa and Toronto, and the September date was officially recognized by Parliament in 1894.
