PROGRAM

George Tucker will speak on:

"Small Claims Court and Procedures"

LAST WEEK

Bob Tyler got so carried away with being certain to have a program that he ended up with, in effect, two speakers, plus a lengthy Key Club update.

1. The first speaker was Jennifer Nummelin of the City of El Monte Dept. of Park, Recreation and Transportation Senior Services Division. She complimented Bob the strongman for delivering a wheelchair which had to be gotten to a senior who needed it. Yr. Ed. was hoping that she would cut down the length of her presentation.

2. The main program on the Temple Family History was presented by Paul Spitzzeri who had to race through his program. He was equal to the task but was not pleased as he announced at the end that he had finished at 1:26 p.m. Incidentally, you can see all about the family at the Workman and Temple Homestead Museum in the City of Industry.

Things were further complicated at the start by Key Club Pres. Angela Yen, who on being called for, dazzled us all by a lengthy update on all the great things done recently by our Key Club. Also, she brought two recruits.

Jim Robuck passed out tiny caps from his trip on a Holland-America ship. Pres. Mike got one, bringing the cruel jibe from the peanut gallery that the cap was to keep in place Mike's brain. Jim Enkelaar got a cap inasmuch as the former Dutch Colony won the Little League championship by beating Canoga Park.

All in all, in Archie Bunker's immortal words, it was one of those days (time-wise that is)

Jerry Jambazian brought his oldest grandchild: Michael

VINCENT VAN GOGH AND HIS MANY RELATIVES

His dizzy aunt: Verti Gogh; The brother who ate prunes, Gotta Gogh;

The brother who worked at a convenience store: Stop n Gogh;
