SEPTEMBER 10, 2013 TUESDAY 12:00 P.M. VOL. 74 NO. 49

THIS TUESDAY

Retired Dodgers usher Tom Munoz will speak about his 30 year career. He knows many past major league baseball players and has a few hundred signed baseballs. The title of his presentation is "Ushering at Dodger Stadium and Having Fun". Late breaking news, Vin Scully has been named Grand Marshal of this years Tournament of Roses.

LAST TUESDAY

Craig Marshall spoke about people in transition I think. He was born and raised in Glendale. He was a child actor, appearing in hundreds of commercials and television shows. He graduated from USC film school and then his life took an unusual turn, he became a yoga monk. For 35 years he practiced meditation and studied Eastern and Western teachings. He traveled the world as a minister and public speaker and was a mentor to many well known people, including the Beatles George Harrison. He proclaims to be an expert on transitions and helps people around the world manage professional and personal change.

Craig stated three stages of transition: Conclusion, Limbo, and Renewal. Charles Darwin says its not strength, not knowledge, but adapting to change.

THE END OF AN ERA - Part 2

Several Kiwanis members attended the grave side services for long-time member Tony Straub on Friday, August 30 at Rose Hills. It was a simple ceremony capped by two Air Force members playing taps and presenting the American Flag to the family. Tony was a quite and simple man that would do anything for you. He will be missed. Those attending were Dan and June Snell, Sue Matchett, Mike Miller, Chuck Shaw, Rich Wenzel, Jerry Jambazian, Mike Lepore, and Dan Arrighi.

On September 4 Margot Youmans was laid to rest. Margot was the wife on long time member Ray Youmans, owner and operator of the Chevron station on the corner of Oak Avenue and Las Tunas. It was an institution in town for over 4 decades. The Memorial Service was held at Church of the Good Sheppard in Arcadia. Internment at Live Oak Cemetery where Ray is. A luncheon was held at Domenico's Italian Restaurant immediately following. We sent flowers to both memorials on behalf of Kiwanis and I was privileged to speak at Margot's service as Mike Miller spoke at Tony Straub's.

NEWS and VIEWS

Marie Leonard visited on Tuesday. Our sympathies are extended to her at the loss of her mother. Sue Matchett is happy about Allison being in a new group home. Treasurer Matt Smith reported ice cream sales of $139.25 at the last concert.

At the Board Meeting on Tuesday, their was a lively discussion of the future of our ice cream machine. We bought it for $1,200 and it does not owe us anything. It can not keep up with the demand on warm evenings. Do we spend another $12 to $15M for another used machine or do we find another revenue stream at the concerts? Jim Robuck and John Gera were the big winners again for the drawing splitting the $142.

It's that time again when dues are due. $150 per year payable all in one or 2 payments. If you will not be renewing your membership please let Secretary Ron Dorazio know right away or Kiwanis International will bill us.

KIWANIS KALANDAR

September 10 - Retired Dodger usher Tom Munoz will speak about ushering.

September 17 - Mayor Cynthia Sterquist will speak of course about Temple City.

September 24 - Installation at "The Only Place In Town", Sierra Madre

September 26 - Maryvale Annual Dinner at 6 p.m.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"In my many years I have come to a conclusion that one useless man is a shame, two is a law firm, and three or more is a congress." - John Adams (1735 - 1826)

See you Tuesday, Jerry
