PROGRAM

The ever busy Jim Enkelaar, has lined up a speaker, Karen Koch, City of Temple City will speak. Yr. Ed. will call the talk:

"The Volunteer Coordinator Speaks"

We will no doubt hear about what a volunteer Coordinator does.

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM

Dr. Jack Von Bulow was introduced by his friend Jerry Jambazian. The dentist presented "Toothprints." This activity makes a wax impression which might be very useful in identifying a child. The toothprint program is without cost to parents or the schools. The overall cost, to the brought in by donations from various sources, might be $6,000. This touched of a likely explanation of activities which our Club might support, Mike Lepore leading with various activities. The guideline is that we want projects which see our participation and not just donate money. Yr. Ed's observation is that in most instances the pool of workers is a small and hearty band who do the real work.

Dan Snell played his cards close to his chest. It appears that Maine is still there. He was asked for an update on Lou Merritt but not had the time to do it. Yr. Ed. saw Lou in the Fisher Drug Store. He seemed to be cheerful.

Speaking of Fisher's, Yr. Ed. found that Bob Hewitt's framed color pitch for his availability as a bagpiper was on the counter. Sam Pang, the druggist always thinking of the community health, has placed a box of Rollaids just ahead of the picture. Both Bob and Janice (the latter with a make-over, which drew cheers from Jim Enkelaar) appeared at the meeting.

JOKES OF THE WEEK

The comics who are front runners: Gov. Davis, Bustamante, Arnold Schwarzenegger, and McClintock. Davis has discovered that he feels that he needs to modify some prior decisions. Bustamante feels that he needs to modify, some former decisions. McClintock feels that what Moses told him is just right. Arnold will sock'em dead with something great just as soon as the Kennedy's come up with it.

See you on Tuesday,
