LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM

Karen Koch, Temple City's Volunteer Coordinator, gave us the word on trying to get volunteers to help Temple City. Chuck Shaw indicated that we would really appreciate it if the volunteers could send us some members. Volunteer translators are useful in helping residents learn at first hand such inscrutable western mysteries as "You can't beat City Hall". She also passed out information on the long playing Sock-O-Rama, Nov. 3 - Dec 10. Collection boxes at City Hall and Live Oak Park. New socks only. They are for low income and/or homeless persons. Two of the quotations passed out by Karen, appear below.

We welcomed back Lou Merritt. The installation draws nigh. See below.

STUDENTS-OF-THE-MONTH

Jerry Jambazian herewith gives his report:

Dr. Doug Sears, Principal of the award winning Community Learning Center brought two outstanding students.

Ashley Abarca enjoys dance, softball swimming, basketball, and football. Three personal goals she is striving for are to graduate from High School, going to NYU, Michigan State, North Carolina, or Arizona State.

Gabe Kobaissi like to read, play basketball, computers, and jogging. Gabe's goals are to graduate from CLC and attend college, study pharmacy, and to become a better person.

Thanks to teachers Blair Helberg, Rod Kingry, and Dr. Doug Sears for investing your lives into these fine young students, helping them to become life-long learners.

COMING UP: THE BIG INSTALLATION!

Sept. 30 there will not be a noon meeting but in the evening we go to the Grand Installation at Frank and Deans. On the South side of Colorado just east of Rosemead. Attitude adjustment hour 6-7 p.m. Dinner soon after. Looking at the sign-up sheet, there is a "maybe" after incoming Pres. Mike Miller. The recall effort for Bob Tyler narrowly missed.

THOSE QUOTES

"Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed people can change the world. Indeed, it is the only thing that ever has." Margaret Mead

"Act as if what you do makes a difference. It does." William James

See you on Tuesday,
