"THE CAMELLIA CLUB"
TEMPLE CITY CALIFORNIA
Chartered August 8, 1939

OCTOBER 11, 2005 TUESDAY 12:15 P.M. VOL. 68 NO. 41

THIS TUESDAY

New member Chuck Souder will give us the news of what the Temple City Sister Cities Association is doing. Chuck is always a wealth of information on things of the city.

Editor Note from Jerry: At the City Council candidates forum last Spring, all five of the candidates noted that Temple City Kiwanis was a great source of community service. Each one pledged that they would join our service club. Chuck Souder was the only one to fulfill that promise. Congratulations Chuck!!

LAST WEEK

President Jim started the meeting with the usual muffled sound of the bell. President Jim artfully wove in the reading of the previous week bulletin for the visually, e-mail, snail mail impaired. It seemed to take on more meaning with a Dutch accent.

General information was shared, with the major part of the meeting being devoted to the Craft Faire.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

Longden teacher, Mr. Greg Shahoian brought 3 great students.

Haley Johnson enjoys soccer, softball, theater arts, swimming, and dancing.

Nicole Rhine has three brothers and sisters and likes soccer, art, shopping, teachers, the playground, and students.

Renessa Lopez would like to be a kind, respectful person, doing good in school and being on the Honor Roll, and go to USC or UCLA to become a lawyer or teacher.

Teacher of the Year, Mrs. Sally Stokes from Cloverly brought 2 outstanding students.

Leonardo Chau likes math, field trips, his friends. He wants to work hard at school, speak Spanish, get better at sports, and be a detective.

Maddie Torosian enjoys softball, cooking, and history. Her goals are to be less selfish, get better at math, and help her parents.

LEGION OF HONOR

Mike Miller presented Lou Merritt with his 50 year Legion of Honor Award and pin. Lou came into the club after before most of us were born. Congratulations Lou!!

BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETING

Well, it was In with the new, and OUT with the old. As I looked around the room, I could not tell when it happened. President Jim skillfully guided us through two hours of the Hatfields and McCoys.

We will not be participating in the Craft Faire this year. Our award winning corn dogs and other greasy things were taken away from us. You haven't lived until you have seen Bob Tyler up to his armpits in cotton candy. We have opted to participate in the "Lights On" festivities on December 3rd.

Entertainment Books will be available in about two weeks. Only 100 will be available at $21 a copy. See Mike Lepore for the details.

The 2005-2006 budget was approved with about $10,000 designated as direct service to our community. $300.00 was sent to the Salvation Army for Katrina Hurricane Relief.

WALTER UPDATE

Walter gave me a call Wednesday morning to convey his greetings to the Club and thank them for the many get well cards. Walter also said he is enjoying reading the Bulletin. Still no visitors or flowers but cards would be most welcome (send to office).

BUMPER STICKERS

My karma ran over your dogma.
Energizer Bunny arrested, charged with battery.

See you Tuesday, Jerry
