THIS TUESDAY

Deputy Rick Adams and Deputy Rich Soto will talk to us about crime. Since we hardly have any crime in Temple City it should be a short program.

LAST TUESDAY

Lawton Gray has been Principal of Oak Avenue Intermediate School for the past 4 years. Oak is comprised of six academic teams, three for each grade level. Each team has core teachers from the English, Social Studies, and Science. Oak Avenue is 1 of 21 schools in Los Angeles County to have an API score of over 900. Oak gym is sporting a new floor with the City partnering in the cost.

My favorite Oak programs are the Civil War Days and the Oak Museum of Tolerance which deals with bullying and October High which teach students the dangers of substance abuse. I love Oak Avenue because my brother in law was the band director there many years ago and my daughter attended Oak and later taught Special Ed there. Dr. Doug Sears was cleaning out his house and presented Lawton with the street sign for Oak Avenue with the 6000 block on it.

Heather Williams was a guest of the club. She is the pastor of Westminster Pres. Church.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

We honored two outstanding students from Oak Avenue Intermediate School. Pictured with the proud students is Principal Lawton Gray and 6th grade teacher Ms. Stephanie Strauss.

Britney is 13 years old and on the Challenger Team. Britney has an older brother and enjoys swimming and volleyball. Britney said, "The best things about Oak Avenue are the nice teachers, clean campus, and nice students." The best thing that ever happened was being chosen for Student of the Month. Personal goals are to have no bullies, have a fundraiser to help cure cancer, get good grades, help people, and make more friends.

Felipe is 14 years old and on the Challenger Team. Felipe has an older brother enjoys playing tennis, racquetball, and soccer. Felipe said, "The best things about Oak Avenue are the great teachers, school activities, and the great campus." The best thing that happened was being chosen Student of the Month and overcoming his anxiety problems. Personal goals are to help students with special needs, build a shelter for the homeless, get good grades, make more friends, and excel in life.

OTHER HAPPENINGS

Chuck Shaw after 27 years has decided to become a Senior Member. Key Club will host a Benefit Concert at the High School for Pediatric Trauma Prevention at 6:00 p.m. in Room 601. Chuck Souder reports that his daughter Robbie is making slow progress after brain surgery and a stroke. Chuck appreciates all the calls of concern from members. Our annual Christmas party with the seniors and Maryvale will take place December 21st at Live Oak Park. New member Henry Walpus is in charge of Sock-O-Rama and Santa Claws and Paws. John Chandler paid for his birthday. All the USC and UCLA fans paid for either winning or losing. Jim wants us to sit in different seats each week. Sitting in the same seat could cost you $$.

HELP FOR HARMONY

Peggy Sue Miller is asking for help. She needs a licensed child care provider to care for her daughter Harmony who is a type one diabetic that is insulin dependent. Help is needed beginning November 1st from 3:30 to 6:30 p.m. preferably in her home. This person will be trained by a registered nurse. Please call Peggy at 445-7095 if you can help or know someone that can.

KIWANIS KALANDAR

October 12 - Deputy Rick Adams and Deputy Rich Soto talk about crime.

October 19 - Key Club will be conducting our meeting. Bring $$$.

October 23 - Harvest Hoedown and craft fair in the park. 12 to 4 p.m.

October 23 - Key Club presents Music for life Benefit Concert at TCHS @ 6:00 p.m.

October 26 - Jerry Backstrom will talk about his trip to Williamsberg and Wash. DC.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"You can't build a reputation on what you are going to do." - Henry Ford (1863 - 1947)

See you Tuesday, Jerry
