PROGRAM

Mike Lepore says that the speaker is a secret. Translation: There is trouble in getting one.

LAST WEEK

Yr. Ed. was hospitalized last Tuesday morning (see below) but Pres. Mike Miller has been helpful in telling Yr. Ed. some of the things he (Mike) observed.

Stephen Guerrero (a Temple City product) from Merrill Lynch, judging by the dialogue with members, appeared to be well received.

Elmer Black got his 35 year plus President recognition. Janice and Bob either had been to the Burning Man Festival, or were going. Only a fireman could think that Burning Man is a real laffer (This is Yr. Ed's take but Mike says it may be just an ordinary drunken brawl).

For Halloween, Oct. 31 Bob Tyler needs volunteers. Lou Merritt is getting stronger; he is now able to take our meetings. Norm Tyre paid for his Stanford loss at the hands of the dread U.S.C.

REAL HELP IN OUR DRIVE FOR NEW MEMBERS

Mike Lepore presented Andy Benscome, a Century 21 Financial Officer. Natalie brought three, who were Olli Makela, Willow Waddell, and Joyce Forest.

NEWS FLASHES FROM JERRY

Janice Murasko says she has it on good authority that the defibrillator save of the TCHS student will possibly be front page news in the December Cal-Neve-Ha publication. Great opportunity for other clubs in the District to get involved.

New program "Toothprints" will begin at Cloverly school November 7th. In keeping with President Mike Miller's decree of "not just being a check writing club", we will be asking for help with this new worthwhile project.

YR. ED AS M.D.FODDER LAST TUESDAY

While helping to move a heavy file, Yr. Ed. suddenly received electric shocks from an outraged spine and abdomen. Will he walk again? Yes. Yr. Ed. is full of every drug ever made. Remarks to the effect that he's full of something else will not be allowed. Thanks to Jerry J. for reporting on our Students of the Month.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

Two outstanding students from Cloverly Elementary School were escorted to our meeting by Pat Wenzel.

Carolina Chau likes homework, art, listening to music, and playing basketball. She wants to be a teacher, to be a good student, and a good girl all her life.

Paul Fang likes chess, drawing, sports hiking, piano, violin, and computer games. The best things about school are the extraordinary teachers, its clean as a whistle, and the challenging homework.
