THIS TUESDAY

"A tour of London and Paris on the Euro-Star train"

Our own Sue Matchett will show some pictures and explain the little items of interest in them. Also, the Eurostar and that trip. Pictures include: Westminster Abbey, Shakespeare's house and the thatching of the roof of Anne Hathaway's home. Some idioms from England, the Tower of London, Winchester Cathedral, Stonehenge and a few of the tidbits about it.

LAST TUESDAY

We viewed the 2nd half of the California At War PBS program. My hope was that we learned a few things about California's role in the war effort.

Chuck Souder probably wishes he did not attend Tuesdays meeting. He was ushered into being the Chairman of the Kiwanis booth at the craft fair. That will teach ya!

South Pasadena was selected Club of the Month for interviewing 7 prospective members.

At the recent DCM meeting, a wager was made. $200.00 will be given to the club that comes up with the cleanest attorney joke. The judges are Lt. Governor Stephen Golden and our own Mike Miller. I assume it understood that they can be bribed.

Mike Miller is celebrating USC being #14 in the BCS.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

The Community Learning Center visited us with 3 great students with their teachers, Mr. Andrew Jahan and Mrs. Yvonne Rivera.

Ricardo Lamas is 15 years old, and has 4 brothers and sisters. At CLC he enjoys P.E., playing ping pong, the learning environment, and friendly people. Personal goals are to be the best ping pong player, complete his credits, and to graduate

Paul Sanchez is 15 years old with 4 brothers and sisters. Paul enjoys skateboarding, airsoft, baseball, and making videos. The best things about CLC are the nice teachers, working at his own pace, and the cool friends. Personal goals are to build a skate park, finish school, go to college, and living the life.

Meagan Reid has a younger sister and enjoys dancing, football, shopping, and hanging out with her boyfriend. The best things about CLC are her friend Elaine, the school hours, and working at her own pace. The best thing that ever happened to Meagan was when she felt like the whole world was caving in on her and she found someone who straightened out her life. Personal goals are to make something of her life, buy a house, have a family and work at it to keep it together.
