THIS TUESDAY

Chuck Souder will give us Part 2 of his presentation a few weeks ago. Marine Chuck was charged with protecting the American Embassy in Europe.

LAST TUESDAY

A repeat performance by Temple City's renaissance man, Hubert Manning. Hubert is of the mind that when he sees something in the store he would like to buy, he says to himself, "I could probably make that item better and cheaper". Hubert is one of those rare treasures that will probably not be replaced in our lifetime. He sees the need, makes the machine, makes the product. Chuck Souder was the winner of the jewelry piece that Hubert made.

Mike Lepore paid something for his new Toyota truck that was made in the U.S.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

CLC teacher Mr. Paul Griffith and Dr. Doug Sears brought a great student to be honored.

Jonathan Martinez has three brothers and sisters and enjoys hanging out with his friends. Best things about CLC are the attention he receives, break time, and the teachers. Goals are to build a mansion for his family, to graduate CLC, go to college, and to be rich.

GET ON YOUR PICTURE TAKING DUDS

Your editor has been given the opportunity to have TC Kiwanis be the feature story in November's Temple City Life paper. I will be writing the story, but I would like to get a group photo of the members at our club meeting THIS TUESDAY.
