PROGRAM

"Cleopatra: Egyptian Queen"

Portrayed by Debbie McIntosh. Recommended by Norm Tyre. She has visited twice before, playing different roles.

LAST WEEK

Mike Lepore made lemonade out of all those lemons, such as speakers who failed him. He called the absent Bob Tyler (see more below on Bob) and, acting like a radio host, interviewed Bob.

Mike brought as his guest another member of that certain real estate operation in Sierra Madre. Her name? Jackie Adaimy.

BANGED UP BOB

Seems like he was committing golf at Montebello and at the 1st hole he slipped on some moss in a drainage ditch and cracked up some ribs. They were big about it: they gave him a rain check on the fee. Bob has agreed to take on the job of coordination of programs.

HALLOWEEN OCT 31

Remember to be there and help. Jim Robuck's jokes on Halloween will run in the next bulletin.

SO LONG, OLE HARLOS

Recently celebrating 50 years in Kiwanis, it is with deep regret we inform you that Harlos Gross passed away about 2:00 p.m. on Wednesday in Huntington Beach. Harlos did not want any services. Donations may be given to the Gil Sefton Foundation for T.C. Students. Harlos was ready to go; said he had no regrets and has lived a good life. Willi did all she could to make him comfortable. We will all miss a great Kiwanian, helping young people with student loans, and taking part in numerous other Kiwanis activities, helped often by Willi.

YR ED AND HIS GREAT ARRANGEMENTS. NO.

As he indicated at our last meeting he was on Rush Limbaugh's drug (Vicodin) so now that he was on the Rush stuff the bulletin might turn out to be right wing. Tough luck guys, Yr. Ed. suffered a remission into sanity. He'll make up for lost time. Here 'tis. Even a country boy knows that you have to look at unfunded liabilities. As to the U.S. we are looking at Medicare and Medi-Cal, and when you add that to the drunken sailor operation in Iraq you are up to several trillion. That's like fiscal insanity. He will go down in history as to or near to, the top of rotten Presidents.

GREAT LABELS ON CONSUMER PRODUCTS

This time it's on a Swedish chain saw box: "Do not attempt to stop chain with your hands or genitals."

Will not see you Tuesday,
