NOVEMBER 1, 2011 TUESDAY 12:00 P.M. VOL. 73 NO. 5

THIS TUESDAY

Mark O'Neal from Scholastic Book Services will tell us how to purchase books to distribute to Temple City schools.

LAST TUESDAY

Robert Ketch is the Executive Director of Five Acres in Altadena. Five Acres is dedicated to empowering families to raise children to become caring and productive adults by building on their strengths and those of their communities. Five Acres works to prevent child abuse and neglect. They are similar to Maryvale in that they were founded as an orphanage in 1888. Five Acres is the oldest non-sectarian child abuse and neglect prevention, treatment, and education center in the San Gabriel Valley. They have been accredited since 1957.

Cloverly Elementary School is looking for some Kiwanians to read books about bullying during No Bully Week. The read-in will be on Monday, November 7th from 8:30 - 8:50 a.m. and 9:00 - 9:20 a.m.. Any volunteers would be appreciated. Please contact President Rich.

Speaking of Cloverly, I was pleased to attend the Red Ribbon assembly last Wednesday. As usual I was taking photos when former Cloverly teacher Ron Lee grabbed my camera and snapped the photo of me enjoying every minute. The young lady to the left is Ron's daughter who has been a Laker Girl for 3 years.

We have the opportunity to help at the annual Halloween Carnival at Live Oak Park Monday. We need at least six members to help where ever needed. You should arrive in or out of costume at 6 p.m..

Steve Montesanti request your presence at our membership meeting. It will be next Thursday (November 3rd) at Chef's Restaurant at 7:00 a.m..

Key Club week is November 7-11. A proclamation will be presented by Mayor Chavez at this Tuesdays Council Meeting. Please try and be there. Prior to that a Board Meeting in the Community Room at 5:30 p.m..

Ronald McDonald Meals of Love is next Wednesday. The theme is chicken. Main dish is Dave Seltman and Dan Snell; Salad is Steve Montesanti and Rich Wenzel; Dessert is Ron Dorazio and John Gera; Bread is Chuck Shaw; Drinks are Mike Miller. Please prepare enough for 24 people.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

We honored three outstanding students from Longden Elementary School. Pictured with the proud students is their teacher Mrs. Katy Korsavong-Yi.

Brandon is 11 years old and has a younger sister. He enjoys reading and electronic things. Brandon said, "The best things about Longden are the kind teachers, awesome activities, and they help me strive to be the best." The best thing that ever happened was immediately making friends in the 4th grade. Personal goals are to go to Harvard, become an electronic engineer, and to live a long and happy life..

Marc is 11 years old and older twin sisters. He enjoys reading and playing football. Marc said, "The best things about Longden are the best teachers, best Principal, and my school has the best activities." The best things that ever happened is having the best parents and family. Personal goals are to build more schools, improve his grades, go to a good college, and become an engineer.

Reuvena is 11 years old and has older sister. She enjoys basketball, music, drinking boba's, football, and going to six flags. Reuvena said, "The best things about Longden are my teachers, P.E, and my friends." The best things that ever happened was making eleven half court shots in basketball. Personal goals are to not pay any taxes, get straight A's, become better at basketball, and to be successful in life.

KIWANIS KALANDAR

November 1 - Mark O'Neal from Scholastic Book Services.

November 8 - Tony Euredjian will present Part 2 of healthy teeth for kids.

November 15 - Retired Army Col. Bob Travis will talk about movies filmed at the Arboretum.
