"THE CAMELLIA CLUB"
TEMPLE CITY CALIFORNIA
Chartered August 8, 1939

NOVEMBER 6, 2007 TUESDAY 12:15 P.M. VOL. 70 NO. 45

THIS TUESDAY

Melissa Hudson from Guide Dogs for the Blind will talk about herself and her own guidedog.

LAST TUESDAY

Born in Scotland, raised in Canada, retired teacher from TCHS Gene McCreadie presented a slide show of the 2006 trip with students. The McCreadies are now promoting adult trips that include Pennsylvania, Virginia, and Washington, DC.

The dates are March 1-9, 2008. $2,285 will get you round trip airfare, transfers, 8 nights in nationally recognized hotels, upgraded breakfasts, dinner, full time tour director, entrance fees and guided tours. The McCreadies know all the "in's and out's" to get preferential treatment by not waiting in long lines.

Things I learned Tuesday were that the Ronald Reagan building is the 2nd largest building in the U.S., with the Pentagon being the 1st. The College of William and Mary is the 2nd oldest University with the date of 1693. Phi Beta Kappa began there.

FARM CITY EXCHANGE

Elmer Black reported on his trip to Visalia with all the Key Clubbers. The photo to the right shows Key Club President Jennifer Ma and Key Club Governor Dorothy Yen in front of the Sun-Maid raisin plant. Elmer encouraged all members to visit Central California. They will be visiting us in April. Elmer has gone on this trip many times and thoroughly enjoys it.

OTHER HAPPENINGS

Pres. Mike Lepore paid for the undefeated season of University of Hawaii of which his grand daughter attends.

Steve Tyre presented a USC champions flag along with a Stanford football ticket to Mr. (Un) Happy #1.

Chuck Souder did a stellar job as head chef at the Kiwanis booth at the Craft Faire serving pop corn, caramel apples, custom made ice tea, and those ever present corn dogs.

Those helping were Frankie, April, Sue Matchett and her daughter Allison, Bill Hohl, Jim (keep Ken Gillanders busy) Enkelaar, Jim Robuck, John Gera, and all the Key Clubbers who helped. Special thanks to April and Frankie for cleaning all the gear, also to Bob Tyler for doing some of the fetching.

Those in the know say Chuck Souder is dabbling in commodity futures by hanging on to the remaining cooking oil before selling it to Jim Robuck.

After 28 months Ground Breaking #2 will take place Friday, November 9th at Rosemead and Las Tunas. The invitation says to wear appropriate shoes as this is a construction site. I say to also wear your old clothes, Temple City's Zen Buffet who was heralded with a "C" rating in March from the LA County Health Dept will do the catering.
