"THE CAMELLIA CLUB"
TEMPLE CITY CALIFORNIA
Chartered August 8, 1939

NOVEMBER 6, 2012 TUESDAY 12:00 P.M. VOL. 74 NO. 6

THIS TUESDAY

Our program for the day is from Ronald McDonald House. This is a service opportunity that we really took hold of thanks to the leadership of Rich Wenzel.

LAST TUESDAY

David Palmer has been the pastor at First Methodist Church in Temple City for three years.

The Methodist Church has four areas of focus, one of them being "Stamping out killer diseases of poverty by improving health globally." It sounds like David would make a great candidate for membership as Kiwanis International has the same goals through the Eliminate Project by getting rid of iodine deficiency.

TC Methodist is celebrating 102 years of being in Temple City. It's hard to believe that when the city was celebrating 50 years as a city in 2010, they were celebrating 100 years. At one time this was the only church in town hosting 17 different denominations.

Our monthly Ronald McDonald House Meals of Love will take place this Wednesday, November 7. The theme is chicken with the main dish provided by Dave Seltman and Dan Snell, Salad by Steve Montesanti and Rich Wenzel, Dessert by Ron Dorazio and John Gera, Bread by Chuck Shaw, and of course drinks on by Mike Miller. Drinks and bread can be dropped off early on Rich's patio. Other main items will be picked up at the house of the first person on the list at 4 p.m..

We had no Students of the Month last Tuesday as it was the fifth Tuesday. We did receive nice thank you letters from Emperor School students Hanna Yip, Ethan Wang, and David Lopez. Congratulation to Emperor teacher Mrs. Shelly Scanlan for sending in the letters.

A free dinner will be given by the Blue Star Banner Program at Temple City First Baptist Church on Baldwin. Dinner and program begin at 6:30. Sharon Johnson has given countless hours of service to make sure the defenders of our country are not forgotten.

The largest service club in the world, The Rose Float club is having a drawing on December 1. The winner will get all kinds of good things including parade seating and Rose Bowl game. Volunteers are also needed on Wednesday December 26 to help serve the evening meal for float decorators.

Our club Christmas Party will be at the Old Spaghetti Factory on Tuesday, December 18. See the Italian duo of Steve Montesanti and Ron Dorazio for more details.

Henry Walpus is once again asking you to fill his custom made sock. Temple City Parks & Rec is sponsoring Sock-O-Rama & More. They need new packaged toothbrushes and toothpaste, new men's white socks and t-shirts, new socks for women and children. Please be sure to give your donations by December 10. This is something that our club has done very well with over 60 units received to date.

Also Santa's Claws & Paws. This Holiday Donation Drive is geared to helping the "littlest" residents of the San Gabriel Valley Humane Society. Items needed include canned and dry cat and dog food, non-clumping cat litter, pet toys for puppies and kittens, towels and bedsheets. The donation deadline for these items is December 10. Collection boxes are at City Hall and Live Oak.

Guests of the Club making his second appearance included Walter Chu, owner of Chubiz bookkeeping and payroll service. Our president is suffering in the Bahamas. He should be with us on Tuesday.
