THIS TUESDAY

Chuck Souder promised a Mystery Program. Late Breaking News!, Dennis Chipetta from Athens Services will tell us what happens to all that stuff you put out on your curb each week.

LAST TUESDAY

We had a "no show" with Bill Beasley because of some health needs. Instead we were treated to two programs. John, Steve, Philip, and Norm proved that you can travel on 4 tyre's. John told about his experience in defending a person who has "allegedly" been arrested for 11 murders. DNA was fed into a machine and the fingers kept pointing to this man were coming out like a slot machine. John will attempt to defend this "alleged" scumball come next February. Since John is in a attorney pool of about 40 who are qualified in LA Country to defend this type at taxpayers expense.

John also went into a long story about murders, Armenian's, extradition, Glendale police going to Armenia, etc. Tony E. and I were a little uncomfortable after hearing about the prison system over there. If you want to eat, your family has to bring you food, otherwise its bread and water. I like it!

John does not believe in the death penalty, saying it cost about 7 times more to execute the person than keep them in prison. Most of the costs are incurred in the appeals process. Currently there are 600+ on death row with about only 2 being put to death in the last two years.

Elmer "what did I just step in?" Black took us on a quick tour of the farmlands in the Fresno area. 23 students from Division 10 went on the trip with 5 coming from our own High School. Next Spring the students from the Tulare area will be coming down here. Elmer also brought us a bag of un-processed walnuts. I never realized how ugly they looked without being cleaned and shined.

Many dollars were paid for USC and UCLA. The Walk to Washington project that we helped fund is now complete with all the schools reporting a huge success.

There will be a free Veterans Diner at the First Baptist Church in Temple City on November 11th at 6:00 p.m.

Bob Tyler is busy doing the shopping for needy families at La Rosa and CLC. 12 turkeys are now in the freezer (don't get ahead of me).

Walter Shatford gives his greetings to the club along with his possible advice for judge voting.

CRAFT FAIRE

Ramrodder Bob Tyler (Mr. Happy #2) had a great crew of Elmer Black, John Gera, Bill Hohl, Mike Miller, Chuck Shaw, Chuck Souder, Dan Snell. With a net profit of about $100 it was noted that our gross sales were down. I know the $100 doesn't sound like much, but we can't put a price on the visability of the K shirts that our members wore, or the sign over our booth.

HALLOWEEN

Ramrodder Mike Miller (Mr. Happy #1) had a crew of Elmer Black, Jim Enkelaar, John Gera, Bill Hohl, Chuck Shaw, Chuck Souder, and Dan Snell. For those of you so inclined and with enough money will be happy to know that I have photos of a certain strawberry blond giving Mr. Happy #1 a big smooch. Everything was great except Count Dracula and Frankenstein going on about 2 hours too long.

BIRTHDAYS

Steve Tyre celebrates his birthday on November 9.

Bob Tyler celebrates another one on November 12.

KIWANIS KALANDAR

November 4 - Veteran's Breakfast at Live Oak Park, 8:30 AM

November 11 - Veteran's Diner at TC Baptist Church, 6 PM

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"The illegal we do immediately. The unconstitutional takes a little longer.

- Henry Kissinger

See you Tuesday, Jerry
