LAST WEEK

Lt. Gov. Craig ("Wally" Wallace) made his obligatory visit and took it seriously, placing some of our members as skills for his objects of Kiwanis.

To review, for those of you in need of it, they are, courtesy of Jerry Jambazian, set forth below.

The great Kiwanis talent scout (Natalie) brought guest Joyce Forest. John Chandler reported on Toothprints getting a good start. Mike Lepore offered to buy pancake breakfasts for those coming from distances of several hundred miles. Ray Gudie reported on successful sales of Entertainment 2004.

Elmer Black was left off the Halloween workers list. Chief Inspector Shatford of Scotland Yard (there is such a person) is on the case and will report to Yr. Ed.

BIG PUBLICITY COMING UP

Our Club's major role in saving the life of a Temple City High youngster will be supplied by Janice to our next addition. The Cal-Nev-Ha magazine and the national Kiwanis magazine will run stories.

OBJECTS OF KIWANIS

The six permanent Objects of Kiwanis International were approved by Kiwanis club delegates at the 1924 Convention in Denver, Colorado. Through the succeeding decades, they have remained unchanged.

- To give primacy to the human and spiritual rather than to the material values of life.
- To encourage the daily living of the Golden Rule in all human relationships.
- To promote the adoption and the application of higher social, business, and professional standards.
- To develop, by precept and example, a more intelligent, aggressive, and serviceable citizenship.
- To provide, through Kiwanis clubs, a practical means to form enduring friendships, to render altruistic service, and to build better communities.
- To cooperate in creating and maintaining that sound public opinion and high idealism which make possible the increase of righteousness, justice, patriotism, and goodwill.

JUST PUT IT ON THE TAB

"Late fees" on credit cards have risen from $1.7 billion in 1996 to $7.3 billion in 2002. I see persons buying a cup of coffee and signing for it. The U.S. gov't has raised the public skyhigh. And now we hear rumors that Calif. may borrow $20 million. Ugh!

DEDICATED TO JERRY J. AND BOB TYLER

I shall seek and find you; I shall take you to bed and control you; I will make you ache, shake and sweat until you grunt and groan; I will make you beg for mercy; I will exhaust you to the point that you will be relieved when I leave. You will be weak for days..... All my love, The Flu

See you Tuesday,
