PROGRAM

A double header:

1. A short slide presentation by Jerry Jambazian (5 or 10 minutes, says he) featuring Toothprints and other Kiwanis Community Services.
2. Al Saucedo, Temple City Postmaster, will let you in on where the undelivered mail is cleverly hidden and other interesting info.

LAST WEEK

Yr. Ed. had to go to Orange for a long directors' meeting of a charitable organization but Jerry Jambazian came to the rescue by giving Yr. Ed. by phone, a one liner report on the next day as to what went on at Kiwanis. Thanks Jerry. Here we go. Billy Mitchell, a professional musician, was the speaker, pitching for SAPPA (Scholarship Audition Performance Preparatory Academy) which is the acronym for the drive to get musical instruments for inner city kids. Steve Tyre will receive your donations and deliver. All outer city high schools will participate. Inglewood High will be the distribution point.

NATALIE STILL WORKING

She brought two guests of the Club: Joyce Forrest and Thelma Rickerson.

A SHOW STOPPER

Mike Miller said that John Chandler and Elmer Black each joined Kiwanis in November of 1968.

BURN CENTER SUPPORTED

A good Kiwanis turnout at the Pancake Breakfast for the Los Angeles County Burn Center, those attending being Pres. Mike Miller, Bob Hewitt and Janice, Dan and June Snell, Mike Lepore, Jim Robuck, Chuck Shaw, and Elmer Black. This ecstasy session (Yr. Ed speaking) apparently featured Vermont Maple Syrup. Jerry Jambazian told me why this was important. I'm unable to tell you just why. Sometimes the most important things just slip away.

SOC-O-RAMA

Bring those new sox to our next meeting. Deadline: Dec. 10.

GIVE BLOOD: KEY CLUB NEEDS IT

Nov. 25, room 601 (Temple City High) all day.

KID'S CHRISTMAS PARTY

Dec. 16, Contact Steve Montesanti and let him know how many children and grandchildren you will be bringing. Susie Starr will perform and some sort of Santa will appear.

TOOTHPRINTS

Next toothprints project will be at Emperor School. Details coming.

ANNIVERSARY

Nov. 30, Pat and Jerry Jambazian (#40)

TOUGH LOVE

A dying man smelled his favorite oatmeal raisin cookies cooking downstairs. It takes all the strength he has left but he gets up from the bed and crawls down the stairs. He sees the cookies cooling on the counter and staggers over to them. As he reaches for one, his wife's wrinkled hand reaches out, smacks his and she yells:
"No, you can't have those! They're for the funeral!"

See you Tuesday,
