THIS TUESDAY

Program Chairman Chuck Souder continues with another good one. Anna Maria Piersol from SDS Security in San Gabriel will speak on what else? Home Security!

LAST TUESDAY

Juventino (Jay) Gomez is Field Deputy for the San Gabriel-Pomona Valley portion of the Fifth Supervisorial District. He is based in the San Dimas Field Office. He has worked for LA County for the last 35 years. He gave up the security 10 years ago and became an "at will" employee of the County. This means that if he and Mike don't get along, guess who get's left?

Jay is working hard to help curb the gang violence in the Duarte and Monrovia area. Supervisor Mike is the Mayor of Los Angeles County and is responsible for 10.3 million people and 4,000 square miles. The five Supervisors are responsible for a budget that is larger than 41 states.

San Gabriel Kiwanis Club visited with Helen Warren, Lou Franco, and Douglass Cheok. Douglass did his best to tell us a joke. It had the same result as some of ours.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

CLC brought 2 outstanding students accompanied by Mrs. Sharon Ransons, Mrs. Yvonne Rivera, and Dr. Doug Sears. Dr. Sears also thanked the club for the donated turkeys for needy families. Thanks Bob Tyler for doing all the fetching!

Rhesa Tran is in Mrs. Rivera' and Mr. Jahan's class. Rhesa enjoys playing the bass guitar and starring in her own band. Goals are to graduate, become a successful musician, and go to college.

Cameron Wetton is in Mrs. Rivera's class. Hobbies are downhill mountain biking, swimming, water polo, and off road racing. Goals are to graduate from fabrication school, and open his own business.

Longden arrived one week early with Mr. Ferguson having to go back to school to get the info sheets minus certificates, Jessica Halladay has 5 brothers and sisters. Hobbies are music, soccer, softball, and acting. The best thing that happened to Jessica was meeting Magic Johnson at the mall.

Aaron Chiu likes his cute puppy, the big school, good food, and great teachers. Goals are to do better in school, stay away from drugs, and be a good kid.

Bobby Krbachian (who did not understand any of the Armenian Tony was giving him) enjoys computer game role playing, the teachers, scheduling, and the kids. Goals are to get more games, make more friends, and get a good job.

John Chandler has set the date for Santa's visit. December 19 we will host the young ladies from Maryvale. If you would like your children or grand-children to attend the festivities, please let Steve Montesanti or John Chandler know.
