THIS TUESDAY

While Mike Lepore is basking in the sun in Arizona we will have:
"I Don't Know"

LAST WEEK

Karl Kasca gave us a the scoop on digging deep through the Internet to find "virtually anything". He gave a fast paced talk on how to supercharge web searches to find what you need and when you need it.

You know it had to be great for me to stay until 1:45. Too bad we only had 11 members there. Where are the rest of you? We cannot attract top quality programs if we tell them there will only be a dozen in attendance.

OTHER HAPPENINGS

If your children or grandchildren will be coming to the Kid's Christmas party on December 6th let Steve Montesanti know NOW.

Bob Tyler needs your help on December 3rd. He will be serving up the usual culinary delights, Corn Dogs, Popcorn, Candy Apples, and Water. Bob only has one member who is willing to help. If no one steps in to help we will probably have to cancel our Community Visibility there.

We were to have an interclub with South Pasadena but nobody showed. Lt. Gov. Bob Lee gave a letter thanking us for Farm City. La Rosa sent a Thank You for the donated turkeys for needy families. Of course, the letters took on added meaning as Pres. Jim read them to us.

Elmer Black contacted Joe & Mary Startin. They are doing well and send their regards.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

Longden teacher, Mr. Dan Ferguson brought three outstanding students.

Charlie Gao enjoys reading soccer, and drawing. Charlie has goals of beating everyone in chess, and to improve his English.

Catalina De la Torre has three brothers and enjoys reading, writing, her teacher, the Principal and Vice-Principal. Catalina's goals are to be an actress, be on a soccer team, and be an A+ student.

Jennifer Zhang has a younger brother and enjoys video games, hanging with her friends, and sleeping. Jennifer would rather have best friends than money.

See you Tuesday, Jerry
