NOVEMBER 30, 2004 TUESDAY 12:15 P.M. VOL. 67 NO. 62

PROGRAM

Jim Robuck says:

"Our speaker for November 30th is John Peters. John is spearheading the movement to bring back professional musicals to the San Gabriel Valley. There will be a free performance at the San Gabriel Civic on December 12th. John will tell us about this evening of music and other developments in theatre in the San Gabriel Valley."

LAST WEEK

Dawn Manwaring, our charming newest prospective member, passed out her Tandem, Inc. "Private Paper," touting the "Advantage of Carry Back Financing" and how to buy private paper. For those who missed it she no doubt can provide the pamphlets.

Bob Tyler announced that the Club's tradition of giving Thanksgiving baskets to the needy is still alive. 12 have been delivered. Thank you Bob for all your work "behind the scenes."

Guest of the Club was the Wells Fargo Manager, Tiffany Ching.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

Longden was our featured school this week. 1st year teacher, Kristen Rockenbach accompanied the two outstanding students.

Jason Ng enjoys reading comic books. The best things about school are the good selection of books in the library, the playground, and activities.

Grace Wong enjoys reading and would like to build a library filled with every book in the world. Personal goals Grace is striving for are to get good grades, read a lot of books, and helping others in need.

GREAT MEMBERSHIP NEWS

Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Joan C. Hillard will be joining the Club. Bob Tyler and Chuck Shaw will fill the void left by the passing of Ray Gudie, who for many years instructed incoming members in the ways of Kiwanis.

A REAL THANKSGIVING

Tuesday brought the New York Times/CBS News Poll.

"At a time when the White House has portrayed Mr. Bush's 3.5 million vote victory as a mandate, the poll found that Americans are at least ambivalent about Mr. Bush's plan to reshape Social Security, rewrite the tax code, cut taxes and appoint conservative judges to the bench. There is continuing disapproval of Mr. Bush's handling of the war in Iraq, with a plurality now saying it was a mistake to invade in the first place."

ANNIVERSARY

Nov. 13 Pat and Jerry Jambazian.

AND IN CONCLUSION

On Thanksgiving Day all over America families sit down for dinner at the same moment — halftime.
