"THE CAMELLIA CLUB"
TEMPLE CITY CALIFORNIA
(Chartered August 8, 1939)

DECEMBER 2, 2003 TUESDAY 12:15 P.M. VOL. 67 NO. 9

PROGRAM

Stephen Guerrero, the Financial Advisor with Merrill Lynch will finish the talk that he gave us previously. Stephen lives in Temple City and is on the Board of the TC Chamber. He is also a prospective Kiwanis candidate for membership.

LAST WEEK

Well, it seems our local Postmaster was a "No Show" AGAIN! Jerry Jambazian was a one man band as he introduced the Longden Students (see below), gave part of the program, and introduced his friend, Ben Molnar, a retired San Gabriel High teacher and Fullbright Scholar, who gave us an interesting look at various nations.

We were visited by a great turnout of San Gabriel Past Presidents as they visited us.

KEY CLUB ATTENDEES

Our members made an Interclub with the Key Club which now has 44 members. Our group was lead by Bob Tyler. Those participating: Elmer Black, Bob Classon, Mike Miller and Janice Murasko. Mike Miller says we have now met the rule that as a Key Club sponsor we must meet with the Key Club.

KID'S CHRISTMAS PARTY

Dec. 16. Let Steve Montesanti know if you are bringing kids. While Chuck Souder continues to recuperate, Dave Smith from The Hat Restaurant has graciously agreed to be our "Santa Pro-Tem".

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

Ellen Laughlin, 6th grade teacher at Longden brought 3 outstanding students.

Sarah Synarto likes the internet, chatting with friends, the phone, and basketball. Sarah wants straight A's, to be at a better reading level, and learn more about Jesus Christ.

Anna Cheung likes drawing and reading. The best things about school are the good teachers, big playground, and the library has so many books. Anna's goals are to get a degree at UCLA, to be a lawyer, and to find a high paying job.

Frank Hsieh like to play basketball and handball. The best things about school are math, English, and art. Frank has modest goals, he said, "I want to be President of the United States, and I would like better grades on my report card".

TEMPLE CITY MAKES THE ROSE PARADE DOLLARS

The Temple City High School Marching Band and Pageantry Corps will march in glory in the 2004 Tournament of Roses Parade. It's a great community that comes forward with the necessary $100,000 for the expenses incurred.

ANNIVERSARY

Dec 7 Mary and past president and Lt. Gov. Joe Startin.

AND IN CONCLUSION

1. Drive carefully. It's not only cars that can be recalled by their maker.
2. When everything is coming your way, you're in the wrong lane.
3. It may be that your sole purpose in life is simply to serve as a warning to others.

Have a good Thanksgiving
See you Tuesday,
