THIS TUESDAY

Joe Lambert from the City Planning Department will give us an update.

LAST TUESDAY

Have you ever had one of those moments when you were glad to witness something. After 37 years in Kiwanis, one of those moments was last Tuesday.

Wayne Martin, who "Retired" about 8 years ago directs the Handbell Choir from the Thompson School in El Monte. Wayne is assisted by Sharon Nakamoto with the support of principal Mrs. Liz Bass. Wayne writes the note charts for the students and color codes each note for each individual student. The Handbell Choir performs about 5 times a year. Much coordination needs to take place with 4 buses and equipment as the students and wheelchairs are transported.

Mr. Jeff Suimore, Superintendent of the El Monte City School District told of the passion that Wayne has of working with these special children who have various degrees of handicaps. These special kids are from 15 different school districts in the San Gabriel Valley.

If you were not fortunate enough to be in attendance you can check out the photos and video at our own website: <http://www.templecitykiwanis.org>

We sincerely thank member Sue Matchett for another outstanding program!!

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

We were pleased to honor three students from Longden Elementary School. Pictured at the right is their teacher Mrs. Clarice Acosta.

Edison Yip is 11 years old, he has a younger sister and enjoys playing basketball, computer games, science, math, social studies, and swimming. Edison has personal goals of getting good grades, having a great attitude, and to be less annoying to people.

Bobby Hubbell is 11 years old, he has an older sister and enjoys playing baseball and football. The best things about school are the teachers, playing with his friends, and science. Bobby's goals are to be a pro athlete, graduate from college, and to be successful in life.

Susana Miramontes is 11 years old. She has a younger sister and is interested in nature. The best things about school are the teachers, her class, and her friends. The best things that ever happened was going to Science Camp. Personal goals are to take care of stray animals, to become a Veterinarian, and prove to her parents that she can take care of a dog.

OTHER HAPPENINGS

Elmer Black just found out that the December 11th party is at his house. Attitude adjustment at 6 p.m., dinner at 7 p.m.. We assume that it will be catered by Wood Ranch BBQ. Sign up next week.

Willie Gross sends her greetings to the Club.

Elmer Black is pushing Rose Float badges for $2 a copy. Is it true that Dan Snell has bought all that Elmer has to sell? Elmer has been charged with finding out what the Kiwanis float looks like.

USC is looking for a new home to play football. Make sure you watch the Cardinal and Gold beat the Powder Blues this Saturday at 1:30. What's up with Hawaii? just ask Mike Lepore.

Sign up for Lights On Temple City, December 8th next Tuesday. Chuck Souder reports that April and Frankie have everything set for our booth. Workers are needed from 2 to 8 p.m.

It was great having Barbara Gera, June Snell, and Sydney Tyler at our meeting to see the Thompson Handbell Choir.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"All the President is, is a glorified public relations man who spends his time flattering, kissing and kicking people to get them to do what they are supposed to do anyway." - Harry S Truman

See you Tuesday, Jerry
