PROGRAM

Our very own, maximum leader, none other than, (drumroll please), John Gera. His topic:

"Labor Compliance Program"

John says, assures that labor laws are followed.

LAST WEEK

John Peters, who is dedicated to schooling should not be just reading, writing and arithmetic. The well-rounded child should know something, first hand, as to the performing arts.

To this end he sketched how musicals, good for kids and adults, will return to the San Gabriel Civic Auditorium. Naturally, he needs seed money. Your kind support will be most helpful.

The San Gabriel Valley Music Theatre offers "Home for the Holidays" free on Dec. 12, 2004, 7:30 P.M.

Free tickets to those who send in a self addressed, stamped envelope.

SHAME ON US; LOUSY ATTENDANCE

Our speaker had to make his presentation to just 7 (seven!) of us. We know that Chuck Shaw had to be in Palm Springs.

Next time this happens the no-shows are bucking for their names in lights. The Supreme Grumpy Editor of this here bulletin says, Arr.., Arr..

AND IN CONCLUSION

From the National Catholic Reporter of Nov. 26, 2004

"I give up: Who stole the rest of the commandments? Mark Twain, it is said, had a friend who was a hypochondriac. He wrote to Twain complaining 'I have both an eye infection and an ear infection. Can you imagine anything worse than an eye infection and an ear infection at the same time?' Twain wrote back, 'Yep. Arthritis and St. Vitus Dance.'"
