"THE CAMELLIA CLUB"
TEMPLE CITY CALIFORNIA
Chartered August 8, 1939

DECEMBER 11, 2007 TUESDAY 12:15 P.M. VOL. 70 NO. 50

THIS TUESDAY

The big Christmas Party at Elmer Black's home. 6 p.m. to adjust your attitude. Dinner at 7 p.m. Chuck Shaw promises a great meal catered by Wood Ranch Barbecue. All the good stuff including ribs, chicken, beans, salad. Cost is $10 each with the club picking up the tab for the balance.

Elmer lives in the high rent district of Arcadia. Go north on Santa Anita (don't forget to wave to Sir George's), about a mile north of Foothill, turn right on Elkins (almost at the top of Santa Anita), turn left (north) on Highland Oaks and you will find the Black estate at 2236 (right side of the street).

Two reminders: John Chandler would like to to bring socks, t-shirts, boxer shorts. Elmer wants you to BYOB, some of you know what that means, no its not Bring Your Own Beans.

Your editor will present a slide show that shows the city in revue for the past year. I hear it is great...you won't want to miss it.

LAST TUESDAY

Temple City Planning Department head Mr. Joe Lambert gave a quick overview of the kind of things that come across his desk.

Joe has been in the planning business for the past 11 years with service in Sierra Madre and Arcadia, the last 3 have been with Temple City.

Joe gave the complete background on the Piazza at Temple City project. It was originally approved by the council in May of 2006 with many setbacks including hiring and firing of project managers. The project should start excavation on January 1st with promised completion by September of 2009. Owner Randy Wang looks like he has all his ducks in a row this time. If he does not complete the project by the promise date you can buy it for a mere 5 million.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

We were pleased to honor two students from Cloverly Elementary School. Pictured at the right is principal Mr. Doug Walters.

Hailey Caldwell is 12 years old and enjoys swimming, basketball, and playing the flute. The best things about Cloverly are the great teachers, Student Council, and spirit days. Personal goals are to be a vet, receive a scholarship, and be a professional flute player.

Rebecca Alanis is 11 years old, has a younger brother and enjoys playing the piano and bike riding. The best things about Cloverly are the good teachers, clean campus, and its safe. Personal goals are to build a school for the homeless, be an optometrist, go to a good college, and have a good house and family.

OTHER HAPPENINGS

If you are bringing children or grandchildren to the Kiwanis-Maryvale Christmas Party on Tuesday, December 18, let John Chandler or Lisa Montesanti know no later than December 11th.

Dan and June Snell are proud of their son who is 58 years old and finally graduating with a degree in History. Granddaughter is also graduating from Cal Poly SLO with a degree in Environmental Science. Their granddaughter was also a recipient of a TC Kiwanis Sefton low interest loan. Congrats Snell's!!

SADNESS

A tragedy struck our community Sunday evening when a 19 year old student at Woodbury University was fatally injured by a street racer at the corner of Las Tunas and Rosemead Blvd. What makes this story so tragic is that this was a former Key Club leader at TCHS by the name of Angela Chung. Angela was described as "goal-driven" with a "bubbly" personality. Angela attended some of our meetings.

Family members said a viewing will be 5 to 8 p.m. Monday at Rose Hills Memorial Park and the funeral service will be held at 9 a.m. Tuesday at the SkyRose Chapel. Our sincerest condolences are expressed to the parents Michael and Lynn Chung along with sisters Olivia and Staci.
