LAST WEEK

It was Pres. John Gera's Day, presiding taking Jerry J's place as MC of the Students-of-the month (Jerry Jambazian will do the bios of the students, which you will read below).

John was the speaker. He started with the Field Act (enacted after the big Long Beach earthquake) All improvements thereafter have to go to bid, with exceptions in some under $21,000 projects, all was T-R-O-U-B-L-E. The school district "must pay labor prevailing wages." The bureaucratic mess resulted, including experts to advise school administrators $350.00 (and up) per hour to advise. Result: For example, the 50 classrooms paid for in bond money end up with 45.

GUEST OF THE CLUB

Jennifer Chen was our guest. She brought with her, Julie, whom she described as being her backup.

STUDENTS-OF-THE-MONTH

Cloverly teacher, Mrs. Kristina DelViscio brought two great students.

Michael Quinones enjoys baseball and soccer, also likes his funny math teacher, the science projects, and his good friends.

Victoria Nguyen enjoys collecting coins, basketball, movies, and computer. John noticed the big spread in siblings from 25 years to 4 months. Victoria wants to be a doctor and become wealthy. Lord knows we don't need more attorneys.
