DECEMBER 16, 2014 TUESDAY 12:00 P.M. VOL. 76 NO. 11

THIS TUESDAY

We will not be meeting at Denny's for their American faire. We will be going Italian at the Old Spaghetti Factory for our Annual Christmas Party. Please see below about bringing a gift.

LAST TUESDAY

Jim Robuck came through at the 11th hour and presented a BizNet friend Jimmy Olson. After his stint at the Daily Planet he became a financial planner for the past 17 years. He is a broker/dealer with LPC with 500 billion in asset management.

All four of his investment management team have a clean FINRA compliance record. We never did find out what FINRA stands for. It is the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority.

Some of Jim's comments: Travel to Italy and Greece soon because the economy there is bad. When consumer spending is up the market goes up. Healthcare and Technology should be in your portfolio. Russia is the second largest oil exporter in the world. More jobs create more consumer spending. To have a robust economy you have to spend. India is going to be known as a financial powerhouse rather than tech support. Canada and Mexico's economy is very strong.

Jim also said that there are 16 million Jews in the world and that they control 25% of the world's wealth. Maybe next time we can get an economist that focuses on America's wealth.

Ron Dorazio is having some health issues again which we hope will clear up. Mike Lepore's grandson will be getting married soon. Dan Snell's granddaughter Kim passed her bar exam on December 1 and is now added to the long list of attorneys. Tony Euredjian came to club without his wallet. He borrowed $20 from me. He kept me in his dentist chair Tuesday afternoon for 2 hours. On the way out after holding me hostage he gave me my $20 back. The good news, he is a great dentist.

DECEMBER ANNIVERSARIES & BIRTHDAYS

Fernando Vizcarra is celebrating his birthday on the 31st. John and Sue Chandler have a wedding anniversary on the 16th. Steve Montesanti joined Kiwanis 27 years ago on the 17th.

SECRET SANTA

There is a family in Temple City that will not be having a normal Christmas this year. This family has helped other people in Temple City many times without regard to themselves. They have experienced some unexpected reverses this year. The Board of Directors graciously decided that our club would help. If you are attending our club Christmas Party at the Old Spaghetti Factory on December 16 please bring a gift card or cash for K-Mart, Walmart, or Target. It is not only the season of remembering the birth of our Savior but the season of giving.
