THIS TUESDAY

This is our opportunity to shine as we entertain the children of Maryvale Orphanage.

LAST TUESDAY

Elmer Black was the perfect host as we had our annual club Christmas party at his estate. A great meal catered by Wood Ranch Barbecue was served. Those in attendance were Ben Ashkinos, Elmer, Janet and Alan Black, John and Sue Chandler, Jim Enkelaar, John and Barbara Gera, Bill Hohl, Jerry and Pat Jambazian, Mike and Judy Lepore, Mike Miller, Peggy and Ed Miller, Steve and Lisa Montesanti, Jim and Cheryl Robuck, Chuck and Pam Shaw, Bob and Sydney Tyler.

Your editor thanks Mike Miller for some of the following.

GOVERNOR'S OFFICIAL VISIT

Gov. Oscar E. Knight & first lady Gladys met with a small but friendly group from the Altadena/Crown City Club and Division 10 last Saturday at the Holy Street Bar & Grill after spending the morning driving from San Diego and working on our Rose Float with our sponsored youth. The governor spoke with most of the club presidents telling them he was there for them and to help them make their club great.

Gov. Knight also reported with pride that during the firestorms in San Diego last month, Kiwanis clubs and members were the first to respond and with "boots on the ground" mobilized with volunteers and money. The governor also spoke about the administrative changes that will be implemented believing that meeting and reporting to 18 regions will be better in the long run than with 44 divisions (which he must do). In a private moment, he expressed the opinion that we lose more members through politics than loss of interest. The Governor and his wife are charming and warm people and I liked his style. Lt. Gov. Stephen Golden and Karen did a great job.

WAITRESS TIP CONTRIBUTIONS

If you have not had an opportunity to contribute to our annual holiday tip for our waitress, please see Mike Miller but do so with caution: without Tony Straub, he will be the one pulling what little hair he has out during our Maryvale Holiday Party with Santa.

INTERCLUB OPPORTUNITY

Sunday December 30, 2007, at approximately 5:00 p.m. with the Rose Float Pasadena Club at the Rosemont Pavilion where the Rose Float(s) are being decorated across from the Rose Bowl where USC will play on January 1st. Informal meeting and meal with the President of Kiwanis International. Cost is $10 a copy.

ANGELA'S MEMORIAL SERVICE

Nineteen year old former T.C. Key Club Vice President and member "Little" Angela My Chung's memorial service was held last Tuesday at the Sky Rose Chapel at Rose Hills in Whittier, CA. In her Eulogy it was written that "...she had a charismatic innocence and a big smile that made her quite popular.

Neither Angela nor her family was prepared for her life to end so suddenly....May Angela always be remembered as a person who cared, loved and would go out of her way to help another person." The services were attended by well over a hundred people including former member Janice Murasko and club representatives Chuck Shaw, Bob Tyler and Mike Miller. Donations are being made to help the family and to set up a scholarship in her name. The club thanks Walt Shatford for his contribution.

LIGHTS ON TEMPLE CITY

April and Frankie served up a delicious meal of corn dogs, caramel apples, and popcorn. Those helping were John Gera, Sue Matchett, Mike Miller, Chuck Shaw, and former member Art Luna. Chuck Souder did his usual great job portraying jolly old Saint Nick. If I forgot anyone working the booth, my apologies, I was busy taking 460 photos.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"When Solomon said there was a time and a place for everything he had not encountered the problem of parking his automobile when Christmas shopping." - Jerry Jambazian

P.S. Some things don't change at Christmas dept: I went to the Post Office to buy stamps on Wednesday along with 11 other folks and they ONLY had 1 postal cashier. The line would have moved a lot faster if they had more clerks and the 1 that they did have was not rewrapping boxes.

See you Tuesday, Jerry
