PROGRAM

Our own Steve Tyre will bring us important topics:
"YEAR-END TAX PLANNING; THE NEW TAX LAWS FOR 2003"

LAST WEEK

Postmaster Al Saucedo did show up and apologizes for not making prior appointments. Reason: All the routes were being readjusted. Unlike the Good Old Days where a local politico (such as Kiwanian Earl Emick, one of the few Demos in Temple City.) used his clout to get the job (just as the President's Campaign Manager got to be the Postmaster General). Nowadays postmasters are sent to their posts. Carriers are expected to have clean uniforms. Carriers get about $23 per hour ($15 to start). Delays from the time of mailing until delivery are due to the number of way stations letters will often go through.

The window clerk perhaps should not let repackaging go on at the window, while people have to wait in line.

Jim Robuck on the 24th is part of a quartet singing Christmas Carols at the Green Street Cafe. Pres. Mike Miller wishes joyous holidays to all.

THE BANDFEST; LAST CALL

December 29 3:00 P.M. Robinson Field at P.C.C. The Temple City High School Band will perform. Adults $10.00; children much less. Call Sharp Seating, 626-795-4171

THE LARGEST INTERCLUB

January 2 Noon. At the Pasadena Hilton. We need four from our Club; Yr. Ed. has been advised that it's $30.00 per plate.

ANNIVERSARIES: TWO FOR THE PRICE OF ONE!

CHRISTMAS TIME (SOMEWHAT)

A few selections from Thomas Cahill's "Pope John XXIII," who was accounted to be a true Christian. He was said to be the greatest Pope.

Pope John 23 said "It is so easy to stay within one's group, especially for Catholics, cutting ourselves off from.... Protestants, Jews, Muslims, believers or non-believers. . . Christ died for all, for all."

My favorite was his chambermaid who sardonically remarked to an interviewer: "Didn't he first have to be a bishop, then an archbishop, then a cardinal..... Didn't anyone have any idea who he was?"

ONE LINERS

A good husband is healthy and absent. Japanese proverb.

So much work, so few women to do it.

Memorial Service: Farewell party for someone who has already left.

Start slow and taper off.

See you Tuesday.
